Alarms Flashed at Mount Vernon, Syracuse For Man Sought in Boy's Kidnap-Slaying

Body of Child Is Uncovered

While a State Trooper, police and curious watch, a workman uncovers the body of 6-year-old Bobby Greenlease from its shallow grave at the rear of a house at 1201 South 38th street, St. Joseph, Mo. The child's body was encased in a plastic covering in which lime had also been placed.

Two Are Held in Cell

Bonnie Brown Heady and Carl Austin Hall, held in the kidnaping and slaying of 6-year-old Bobby Greenlease, are handcuffed as they sit on a marble slab seat in a detention cell at Central police headquarters, St. Louis, Oct. 7. Even Hall's shoelaces have been taken from him.

Sought by Police

Thomas John Marsh, 37, a former convict, is being sought by police in connection with the kidnaping-slaying of Bobby Greenlease whose body was found in St. Joseph, Mo. This picture of Marsh was made by the Wichita, Kas., police department when he was arrested there on July 7, 1944, for vagrancy and investigation.

Nassau Grand Jury Returns Indictments at Raceway

New York, Oct. 8 (AP)—A Nassau County Grand Jury returned indictments in the Roosevelt Raceway investigation shortly before last midnight.

The charges were reported unofficially to include conspiracy, extortion, coercion and kickbacks. The number and identities of those indicted was not revealed.

County Judge Norman F. Lent was summoned from his home to the court house at Mineola to receive the indictments from the grand jury.

The indictments were the first reported in the widening statewide probe of harness race tracks, which has been concentrated on Roosevelt Raceway at Westbury and the related Yonkers Raceway at Yonkers.

Lights burned at the Mineola Court House through the night and warrants were reported being prepared for service today on those indicted.

Among the Roosevelt Raceway matters under investigation are reports that AFL union leaders extorted up to $345,000 a year from track employes in a pay kickback racket. Also under inquiry are raceway stock ownership deals, and a splitup of concession receipts in a peculiar manner.

The grand jury heard testimony yesterday from about 20 persons with connections at the track.

The jury is scheduled to meet again next Wednesday, and more indictments are believed likely. District Attorney Frank A. Gulotta and his staff already have questioned about 350 of the track's 1,200 employes.

Gov. Thomas E. Dewey said yesterday he was studying the advisability of a new supervisory body with expanded powers to replace the State Harness Racing Commission. The commission made the suggestion for a stronger board wtih an adequate staff on Tuesday.

Talking with newsmen here, Dewey said he had no plan at present to supersede Gulotta or District Attorney Samuel Faile of Westchester county, where Yonkers Raceway is situated. Faile is investigating Yonkers Raceway. All seven licensed harness tracks are being probed by the state commission.

Answering a question, Dewey said: "I do not lightly supersede elected officials. I do not act to supersede except on sworn charges of malfeasance or misfeasance in office, or upon request by the officials themselves."

Hiring practices and large payments to "trouble-shooters" to preserve labor peace are among the things under investigation at Yonkers Raceway.

Dewey said he was "watching closely" the conduct of the Nassau and Westchester investigations and was receiving reports twice a week from Gulotta and Faile.

Faile said at White Plains yesterday he had sent a letter to State Correction Commissioner Edward J. Donovan requesting the names of those who had visited Joseph S. Fay, convicted labor extortionist, in Sing Sing

Washington, Oct. 8 (AP) — The position of the treasury Oct. 6: Cash balance $6,433,422,165.40. Budget receipts fiscal year July 1 $14,461,606,430.90. Budget expenditures fiscal year $19,512,552,228.82. Budget deficit $5,050,945,797.92. Total debt $272,875,725,760.90. Gold assets $22,128,459,047.51.

Allies Told They Stall Interviews

Group Refuses to Be 'Party to Curtailment' of Period—Center Is Needed

Seoul, Oct. 8 (AP)—The Neutral Nations Repatriation Commission today accused the allies of trying to stall away more of the dwindling 90-day period allotted for interviews with 23,000 war prisoners who refuse to return to their homelands.

The NNRC told the UNC pointedly that the Reds offered to take only four days to build an explanation center which the allies estimated would require a month.

The allies offered to build temporary facilities in a week, but the commission said the Reds proposed building in four days a permanent center which the UNC said they would complete in a month.

Truce terms specify that the explanation period end Christmas eve. The allies have turned down repeated NNRC and Red requests for an extension.

In a letter to the UNC Thursday, the NNRC said bluntly:

The commission is not prepared to be a party to the curtailment of the period . . . particularly in view of the fact that the UN command is unable to agree to an extension . . ."

Start Is Delayed

The construction of a satisfactory explanation center has delayed the start of persuasion attempts since Sept. 26, and apparently is the only remaining obstacle.

Meanwhile, another Indian letter rejected the allied charge that the commission was operating on the theory that most of the prisoners "actually desire repatriation."

The Indian chairman of the five-nation commission, Lt. Gen. K. S. Thimayya, said the commission "made no such assumption."

Thimayya also rejected a Communist charge that the captives have not been allowed "to express their free will."

Thimayya said, in a letter replying to one from former UN Commander Gen. Mark Clark that the commission had kept an "open mind" and is determined to gain for the prisoners "complete freedom of choice without duress or coercion."

Thimayya also noted that the 117 captives who have already changed their minds indicate that not all of the 22,600 Red POWs want to refuse repatriation.

None Dares Openly

He said none of the prisoners in the camp "dared openly" to ask for repatriation for fear of reprisals from other captives.

An allied spokesman said there would be no immediate comment from the UNC on either of the Indian letters.

Neither of the Indian statements referred to a growing nervousness over South Korean demonstrations and actions aimed at the Indian custodial force.

About 1,000 Chinese civilians demonstrated Thursday in Seoul, demanding removal of Indian troops from Korea and branding as "barbarous" Indian treatment of the captives.

Earlier, Thimayya said the South Korean actions were designed to "incite" the prisoners. He reminded the UNC of its responsibility to protect the Indian camp in the buffer zone.

U. S. Prods China And North Korea

Both Are Asked When They Will Enter Talks on Korean Case

Washington, Oct. 8 (AP) — The United States sharply prodded Red China and North Korea today to say whether and when they will be prepared to enter a political conference in Korea.

A message dispatched through the Swedish government told the Reds that an early reply from both "is imperative" if the conference recommended in the Korean armistice agreement is to take place in the time set in the armistice agreement.

The United States note was released here by the State Department and it informed the Reds bluntly and officially that efforts to have the UN General Assembly reconsider its decision against including neutral nations in the conference had been rejected so that arrangements previously approved for a conference of the two belligerent sides stand firm.

"Our side," the United States said, "is prepared to negotiate in all reasonableness and good faith."

The message went on:

"If your side has any intention of carrying out the recommendation contained in the armistice agreement and to participate in a Korean political conference looking toward a peaceful settlement of the Korean political question and the withdrawal of foreign forces from Korea, etc., there can be no reason for your side to refuse to get on with the conference.

"An early expression of your views on the matter raised in these messages is imperative if the Korean political conference recommended in the armistice is to take place within the time limit set forth in the armistice agreement."

The armistice agreement was signed July 26. The political conference was recommended to begin within three months, which means by the end of October.

Trieste Will Be Under Italians

London, Oct. 8 (AP) — The United States and Britain have decided to turn the city and port of Trieste over to Italian administration.

This was reported here today by diplomatic officials, and confirmed in an announcement by the French Foreign Ministry. The French said the step was taken after consultations with them. London sources said U. S. and British occupation troops will be withdrawn.

The United States and Britain have occupied Zone A of the Trieste Free Territory, including the city and port, since World War 2. Yugoslavia occupies the remainder of the area, known as Zone B.

Dewey Appoints Group to Conduct Probe of Tracks

Will Make Check Also Into Trotting Association Ownerships, Other Interests

New York, Oct. 8 (AP)—Governor Thomas E. Dewey today appointed a commission to conduct an immediate and sweeping investigation of harness racing, including an inquiry into trotting association ownerships and the activities of corporations or other interests associated with harness tracks in the state.

The commission was established under the Moreland Act.

The governor named three lawyers as members. They are Bruce Bromley as chairman; John A. Brosnan and George Trosk, all of New York.

Eden Says Britain Will Work to Get East-West Parley

Margate, England, Oct. 8 (AP)—Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden declared today Britain will work unceasingly for east-west talks at whatever level possible despite Russia's negative attitude.

In his first public appearance after a six-month sick leave, Eden told the opening session of the annual Conservative party conference that Prime Minister Churchill's government is also seeking ways to assure the Soviets "that we do not threaten their security."

First Aim of Britain

Eden stressed that the first aim of British policy is "to maintain the unity and strength of the western alliance." And Britain, he asserted, is "determined to keep our alliance defensive in character, to indulge in no provocation, and to take advantage of any and every opportunity for settling difficulties and solving disputes."

"That is our policy," he continued. "There is room in it for any meeting or conference which seems to be practicable or profitable. There is certainly room in it for assurances to the Soviets that we do not threaten their security. We are working on that, to see in what form such assurances might be given."

Eden launched a sharp attack on recent Labor Party criticism

Miller Testifies, Says Local Man Gave Zelnick $4,000

A new local angle was added yesterday to the income tax frauds case being tried in New York, when testimony was given to the effect that a Kingston resident had paid a $4,000 bribe to an agent, according to the Associated Press.

Testifying at the Federal Court trial of five former internal revenue employes, charged with defrauding the government, the AP said, H. Harold Miller, Catskill accountant, revealed he received a $1,250 share of the money allegedly paid by Max J. Oppenheimer of Oppenheimer Brothers, Inc., a Kingston jewelry firm.

Accepted $4,000

According to Miller's story, Ernest Zelnick, former internal revenue agent here, "wanted no part of the deal" in the 1948 tax case, but later changed his mind and accepted the $4,000 from Oppenheimer.

Miller and Zelnick, the AP said, were named as conspirators but not as defendants in the indictment of the five former internal revenue employes.

The five are Maurice F. O'Brien, 56, Albany, former chief of the Internal Revenue Office at Troy; Edward F. Rourke, 32, Albany; Dave Witt, 36, Whitestone, Queens; Abraham Inkeles, 34, Bayside, Queens; and Murray Talanker, 45, Albany.

Miller told of a case allegedly involving Rourke, O'Brien and Talanker.

Two Witnesses Put Under Guard

Three Democrats Come to Support Of Senator Wicks

Two Senators and Attorney Express Their Feelings as to Character, Integrity

Two Democratic senators from the metropolitan area and an Ulster county attorney who describes himself as a "lifelong Democrat" but spoke as a "private citizen" in statements and a letter received by The Freeman yesterday, back Lt. Governor Arthur H. Wicks in his stand during the political controversy arising from reported visits to Joseph S. Fay, convicted labor extortionist.

State Senator Fred G. Moritt, Democrat of the 11th District of New York (Brooklyn) expressed "highest confidence" in the "personal character and integrity of Wicks, and Senator Joseph Zaretzki, Democrat, of the 23rd District, New York county, said he failed to see "what all the shooting is about."

Attorney Joseph M. Campbell, of Saugerties, the "lifelong Democrat," said, in his opinion, Wicks needs "no defender as to his conduct in public office."

Moritt Statement

Statement by Senator Fred G. Moritt in behalf of Senator Arthur H. Wicks was as follows:

"Senator Wicks and I have been partisan legislators and have fought each other on the floor of the New York State Senate for 16 years. From my personal observation as a young man I have the highest confidence in the personal character and integrity of Senator Wicks. I do think Senator Wicks should stay out of the New York mayoral campaign. I am supporting Bob Wagner with all the powers I possess. I knew him as an excellent and conscientious member of the Assembly; and he was hard-working. As to Senator Wicks resigning, I personally wouldn't do it. It took him 28 years, a long time, to gain his present high standing in state government. I don't like to see that destroyed. If he made a mistake, it was an honest one. I am opposed to trial by journalism. I should hate to see Senator Wicks' value to the state impaired. The people of his district should be the ones to decide whether he should resign. They and none other."

Zaretzki Statement

The statement of Senator Joseph Zaretzki follows:

"I don't know what all the shooting is about. All I have read in the newspapers is that Senator Wicks visited the inmate of a state prison. We have passed many laws in the legislature, but I don't know of any which makes it a crime to visit the inmate of a state prison. The only explanation of the reason for the visit was the one made by Senator Wicks himself, that he visited an inmate with power in labor circles and in behalf of the people of his district. No one has denied it or gainsaid it or proved Senator Wicks' reason was not the true reason. Under the circumstances any other imputed reason is pure speculation. This business of convicting people without proof seems to be the current vogue, but we as legislators, are sworn to uphold the constitution of the state of New York. We should be the last to condemn anyone on mere speculation."

FBI Is Watching Over Stevedores as New Tieup Looms

New York, Oct. 8 (AP)—Two witnesses in a potential contempt action against Anthony (Tough Tony) Anastasia were placed under FBI guard today as inter-union rivalry threatened a new tieup of east coast ports.

The witnesses are longshoremen, but their identities were not disclosed.

Federal authorities said they were considering a contempt of court action against Anastasia, Brooklyn union boss, on the ground he closed two Brooklyn piers.

They said this violated a Taft-Hartley law court injunction signed Monday night to end a five-day strike of 60,000 east coast longshoremen.

Fights AFL Efforts

Anastasia, a member of the International Longshoremen's Association, which the American Federation of Labor ousted for failing to rid itself of racketeering elements, is fighting AFL efforts to gain control over the longshoremen.

Anastasia and his followers posted themselves outside the two piers yesterday and demanded to see "credentials" of longshoremen reporting for work there. The piers are operated by the Bull and Isthmian Lines.

Most of the men at the closed piers had swung over to the new AFL waterfront union.

Anastasia today denied he had "closed" the piers. He said he simply explained to the men that the piers were in the old union's district and that they could work by rejoining the ILA.

He said the men had asked for two days to think it over.

As the tension mounted in the rivalry between the AFL and the orphaned ILA, operations outwardly were normal today except at the Brooklyn piers which are serving as a test of strength.

Due to Sail

The British liners Brittanic and Mauretania, due to sail for Europe later today, were being loaded in a normal manner in Manhattan.

Extra police were stationed near most piers, however.

The chief rivalry in Brooklyn centered around the Bull Line pier where the freighter Kathryn was tied up, awaiting the loading of a general cargo.

When Anastasia confronted the

John Marsh Is Object of National Search; Police in State Are Alerted

New York, Oct. 8 (AP)—Reports of men resembling suspected kidnap-slayer Thomas John Marsh came from opposite ends of New York state today, raising the possibility that he was in the New York city area.

The FBI here had no comment, however, and referred queries to Washington.

Police of seven states have been alerted.

In the lower Hudson Valley local police communications buzzed with descriptions of the 37-year-old man wanted in the Bobby Greenlease case.

Orders went out to hold any man wearing a green army combat jacket who fitted Marsh's description. Guards were placed on Hudson river crossings.

With Missouri Plates

In Syracuse, a citizen reported to police he saw a man who might have been Marsh at 8 o'clock last night in a parked auto with Missouri license plates.

The report said the man was wearing a green combat jacket and needed a shave.

Shortly before midnight, New York city police boarded a subway train after getting an anonymous tip that Marsh was aboard.

Their efforts were fruitless.

But several hours later, around 1 a. m. today, a Mount Vernon tavern patron reported to police that a green jacketed man resembling Marsh had stopped by to ask the way to the Whitestone Bridge.

Fast driving could take a motorist from Syracuse to Mount Vernon in the time between the two reports.

Search Spreads Over Nation

Kansas City, Oct. 8 (AP) — search spread over the nation today for a tatooed man named as an accomplice in the kidnap-slaying of 6-year-old Bobby Greenlease.

The child's body was dug from a shallow grave in St. Joseph, Mo. yesterday after two persons were arrested as the kidnapers. The arrests followed payment of a record $600,000 ransom by the child's wealthy parents.

Reports came from several parts of the country that a person resembling the tattooed man 37-year-old Thomas John Marsh had been seen. Missouri, New York and Iowa were among the

France Permits Only 7,500 At Moroccan Air Force Sites

Paris, Oct. 8 (AP)—France is letting only 7,500 Americans enter Morocco to man the huge U. S. Air Force bases there, and American officers said today that number soon won't be enough to do the job.

Three of the jet bomber and fighter bases will be finished in the near future—at a cost of nearly 300 million dollars. U. S. officers say they will need a marked increase in troops, perhaps nearly double the 7,500 now allowed under present U. S. agreements with France. Two more bases are still to be built.

French officials say the limit on troops was agreed to in the first contract authorizing the United States to build bomber bases. This limit will be continued, one authoritative spokesman said, until a "status of forces" agreement can be worked out covering the operation and administration of the bases and control of the military forces there.

The spokesman said France will allow no more men on the bases until a more workable agreement has been reached. That now is being negotiated, but the differences have continued for two years. When an agreement is reached, the spokesman said, the limit can probably be raised.

American officials in Paris indicated the negotiations were going on acceptably well. A "status of forces" agreement covers such things as which nation's courts try soldier offenders, hiring and firing of civilian personnel and transportation.

American air force officers said the present ceiling will let into Morocco only enough U. S. officers, airmen and civilians to operate two bases and the 5th Air Division Headquarters in Rabat.

American civilian officials in Morocco said the limitation stems from French fears of increasing American influence in the country and a French belief that Americans are interfering in local politics.

"Frenchmen here actually think we want to take over this colony," said one U. S. government official in Morocco.

A French official agreed there was considerable antagonism toward Americans among the French in Morocco. He said it started when Moroccan leaders interpreted comments by President Roosevelt as assurance that the United States would help them get independence from France. Morocco is one of France's tenderest spots.

Allies Told They Stall Interviews

Group Refuses to Be 'Party to Curtailment' of Period—Center Is Needed

Seoul, Oct. 8 (AP)—The Neutral Nations Repatriation Commission today accused the allies of trying to stall away more of the dwindling 90-day period allotted for interviews with 23,000 war prisoners who refuse to return to their homelands.

The NNRC told the UNC pointedly that the Reds offered to take only four days to build an explanation center which the allies estimated would require a month.

The allies offered to build temporary facilities in a week, but the commission said the Reds proposed building in four days a permanent center which the UNC said they would complete in a month.

Meanwhile, another Indian letter rejected the allied charge that the commission was operating on the theory that most of the prisoners "actually desire repatriation."

None Dares Openly

He said none of the prisoners in the camp "dared openly" to ask for repatriation for fear of reprisals from other captives.

An allied spokesman said there would be no immediate comment from the UNC on either of the Indian letters.

Neither of the Indian statements referred to a growing nervousness over South Korean demonstrations and actions aimed at the Indian custodial force.

About 1,000 Chinese civilians demonstrated Thursday in Seoul, demanding removal of Indian troops from Korea and branding as "barbarous" Indian treatment of the captives.

Miller Testifies, Says Local Man Gave Zelnick $4,000

A new local angle was added yesterday to the income tax frauds case being tried in New York, when testimony was given to the effect that a Kingston resident had paid a $4,000 bribe to an agent, according to the Associated Press.

Testifying at the Federal Court trial of five former internal revenue employes, charged with defrauding the government, the AP said, H. Harold Miller, Catskill accountant, revealed he received a $1,250 share of the money allegedly paid by Max J. Oppenheimer of Oppenheimer Brothers, Inc., a Kingston jewelry firm.

Three Democrats Come to Support Of Senator Wicks

Two Senators and Attorney Express Their Feelings as to Character, Integrity

Two Democratic senators from the metropolitan area and an Ulster county attorney who describes himself as a "lifelong Democrat" but spoke as a "private citizen" in statements and a letter received by The Freeman yesterday, back Lt. Governor Arthur H. Wicks in his stand during the political controversy arising from reported visits to Joseph S. Fay, convicted labor extortionist.

State Senator Fred G. Moritt, Democrat of the 11th District of New York (Brooklyn) expressed "highest confidence" in the "personal character and integrity of Wicks, and Senator Joseph Zaretzki, Democrat, of the 23rd District, New York county, said he failed to see "what all the shooting is about."

Attorney Joseph M. Campbell, of Saugerties, the "lifelong Democrat," said, in his opinion, Wicks needs "no defender as to his conduct in public office."

Moritt Statement

Statement by Senator Fred G. Moritt in behalf of Senator Arthur H. Wicks was as follows:

"Senator Wicks and I have been partisan legislators and have fought each other on the floor of the New York State Senate for 16 years. From my personal observation as a young man I have the highest confidence in the personal character and integrity of Senator Wicks. I do think Senator Wicks should stay out of the New York mayoral campaign. I am supporting Bob Wagner with all the powers I possess. I knew him as an excellent and conscientious member of the Assembly; and he was hard-working. As to Senator Wicks resigning, I personally wouldn't do it. It took him 28 years, a long time, to gain his present high standing in state government. I don't like to see that destroyed. If he made a mistake, it was an honest one. I am opposed to trial by journalism. I should hate to see Senator Wicks' value to the state impaired. The people of his district should be the ones to decide whether he should resign. They and none other."

Zaretzki Statement

The statement of Senator Joseph Zaretzki follows:

"I don't know what all the shooting is about. All I have read in the newspapers is that Senator Wicks visited the inmate of a state prison. We have passed many laws in the legislature, but I don't know of any which makes it a crime to visit the inmate of a state prison. The only explanation of the reason for the visit was the one made by Senator Wicks himself, that he visited an inmate with power in labor circles and in behalf of the people of his district. No one has denied it or gainsaid it or proved Senator Wicks' reason was not the true reason. Under the circumstances any other imputed reason is pure speculation. This business of convicting people without proof seems to be the current vogue, but we as legislators, are sworn to uphold the constitution of the state of New York. We should be the last to condemn anyone on mere speculation."

FBI Is Watching Over Stevedores as New Tieup Looms

New York, Oct. 8 (AP)—Two witnesses in a potential contempt action against Anthony (Tough Tony) Anastasia were placed under FBI guard today as inter-union rivalry threatened a new tieup of east coast ports.

The witnesses are longshoremen, but their identities were not disclosed.

Federal authorities said they were considering a contempt of court action against Anastasia, Brooklyn union boss, on the ground he closed two Brooklyn piers.

They said this violated a Taft-Hartley law court injunction signed Monday night to end a five-day strike of 60,000 east coast longshoremen.

Fights AFL Efforts

Anastasia, a member of the International Longshoremen's Association, which the American Federation of Labor ousted for failing to rid itself of racketeering elements, is fighting AFL efforts to gain control over the longshoremen.

Anastasia and his followers posted themselves outside the two piers yesterday and demanded to see "credentials" of longshoremen reporting for work there. The piers are operated by the Bull and Isthmian Lines.

Most of the men at the closed piers had swung over to the new AFL waterfront union.

Anastasia today denied he had "closed" the piers. He said he simply explained to the men that the piers were in the old union's district and that they could work by rejoining the ILA.

He said the men had asked for two days to think it over.

As the tension mounted in the rivalry between the AFL and the orphaned ILA, operations outwardly were normal today except at the Brooklyn piers which are serving as a test of strength.

Due to Sail

The British liners Brittanic and Mauretania, due to sail for Europe later today, were being loaded in a normal manner in Manhattan.

Extra police were stationed near most piers, however.

The chief rivalry in Brooklyn centered around the Bull Line pier where the freighter Kathryn was tied up, awaiting the loading of a general cargo.

When Anastasia confronted the

John Marsh Is Object of National Search; Police in State Are Alerted

New York, Oct. 8 (AP)—Reports of men resembling suspected kidnap-slayer Thomas John Marsh came from opposite ends of New York state today, raising the possibility that he was in the New York city area.

The FBI here had no comment, however, and referred queries to Washington.

Police of seven states have been alerted.

In the lower Hudson Valley local police communications buzzed with descriptions of the 37-year-old man wanted in the Bobby Greenlease case.

Orders went out to hold any man wearing a green army combat jacket who fitted Marsh's description. Guards were placed on Hudson river crossings.

With Missouri Plates

In Syracuse, a citizen reported to police he saw a man who might have been Marsh at 8 o'clock last night in a parked auto with Missouri license plates.

The report said the man was wearing a green combat jacket and needed a shave.

Shortly before midnight, New York city police boarded a subway train after getting an anonymous tip that Marsh was aboard.

Their efforts were fruitless.

But several hours later, around 1 a. m. today, a Mount Vernon tavern patron reported to police that a green jacketed man resembling Marsh had stopped by to ask the way to the Whitestone Bridge.

Fast driving could take a motorist from Syracuse to Mount Vernon in the time between the two reports.

Search Spreads Over Nation

Kansas City, Oct. 8 (AP) — search spread over the nation today for a tatooed man named as an accomplice in the kidnap-slaying of 6-year-old Bobby Greenlease.

The child's body was dug from a shallow grave in St. Joseph, Mo., yesterday after two persons were arrested as the kidnapers. The arrests followed payment of a record $600,000 ransom by the child's wealthy parents.

Reports came from several parts of the country that a person resembling the tattooed man 37-year-old Thomas John Marsh had been seen. Missouri, New York and Iowa were among th

France Permits Only 7,500 At Moroccan Air Force Sites

Paris, Oct. 8 (AP)—France is letting only 7,500 Americans enter Morocco to man the huge U. S. Air Force bases there, and American officers said today that number soon won't be enough to do the job.

Three of the jet bomber and fighter bases will be finished in the near future—at a cost of nearly 300 million dollars. U. S. officers say they will need a marked increase in troops, perhaps nearly double the 7,500 now allowed under present U. S. agreements with France. Two more bases are still to be built.

French officials say the limit on troops was agreed to in the first contract authorizing the United States to build bomber bases. This limit will be continued, one authoritative spokesman said, until a "status of forces" agreement can be worked out covering the operation and administration of the bases and control of the military forces there.

The spokesman said France will allow no more men on the bases until a more workable agreement has been reached. That now is being negotiated, but the differences have continued for two years. When an agreement is reached, the spokesman said, the limit can probably be raised.

American officials in Paris indicated the negotiations were going on acceptably well. A "status of forces" agreement covers such things as which nation's courts try soldier offenders, hiring and firing of civilian personnel and transportation.

American air force officers said the present ceiling will let into Morocco only enough U. S. officers, airmen and civilians to operate two bases and the 5th Air Division Headquarters in Rabat.

American civilian officials in Morocco said the limitation stems from French fears of increasing American influence in the country and a French belief that Americans are interfering in local politics.

"Frenchmen here actually think we want to take over this colony," said one U. S. government official in Morocco.

A French official agreed there was considerable antagonism toward Americans among the French in Morocco. He said it started when Moroccan leaders interpreted comments by President Roosevelt as assurance that the United States would help them get independence from France. Morocco is one of France's tenderest spots.

Tomorrow the polls will be open from 10 in the morning until 10 in the evening. Saturday, the polls will open at 7 a. m. and close at 10 p. m.

Do not wait until the last minute to perform this important duty. Register tomorrow as something may happen to prevent you from registering Saturday, which is the last day.

Here is the opportunity to be a useful citizen. See that every member of your family registers and urge your friends and neighbors to register.

Kelder and Velie To Attend State Farm Bureau Talk

Ithaca, Oct. 7—S. Robert Kelder, Stone Ridge and H. Townsend Velie, Marlborough will represent Ulster County Farm Bureau at the 38th annual meeting of the New York State Farm Bureau Federation in Syracuse, November 15-17.

Their election as official delegates to the annual meeting was announced by E. S. Foster, general secretary of the State Federation.

Paul Lien, Wallkill, and William A. Coy, Highland will be alternates.

"Each County Farm Bureau is allowed a delegate for each 900 members or fraction thereof, under the constitution and by-laws of the New York State Farm Bureau Federation," Foster said in explaining delegate election procedure.

Discussion Planned

One of the highlights of the occasion will be the annual Talk Meet in which numerous young farmers will match their wits in discussing "Self-government is my responsibility," Foster revealed.

The Talk Meet, originated by the American Farm Bureau Federation, "is a unique public speaking contest in which the contestants speak off-the-cuff and without the aid of prepared manuscript," Foster explained. "They draw numbers from a hat, assigning them to various sub-topics of the general topic and then have only 30 minutes in which to prepare their remarks. The aim of the contest is to help young people prepare themselves to be effective farm spokesmen."

Four to Receive Bonds

The four top winners will each receive a $25 Government bond and a certificate. The top winner, will have his expenses paid to and from the American Farm Bureau annual meeting where he will compete for national honors.

"Delegates to this year's meeting," Foster noted, "will meet to crystallize New York Farm Bureau policy as it relates to many different public problems and the national farm program."

As usual the annual meeting will get under way with a vesper service on Sunday evening, attended by Farm Bureau and 4-H delegates.

Dr. Kenneth McFarland, formerly superintendent of schools, Topeka, Kan., and how educational consultant and lecturer for General Motors Corp., will be the speaker at the annual farm and home dinner held Monday night in the Hotel Syracuse ballroom.

Will Hear Leaders

At their own sessions on Monday, Farm Bureau delegates will hear such national farm leaders as George Wilson, president of the California Farm Bureau and a member of the American Farm Bureau Federation board of directors.

At the annual business session on Tuesday delegates will hear the annual reports of their officers, act on resolutions and elect five directors.

Meeting Postponed

The Town of Olive Public Health Nursing Committee meeting has been postponed from Monday, Oct. 12, to Monday, Oct. 19, it was announced today. The October 12 date is a holiday, it was explained.

Register Tomorrow

Friday and Saturday are the final days of registration in the City of Kingston. Tomorrow the polls will be open to 10 p. m. Saturday, the polls will be open from 7 a. m. until 10 p. m.

WHERE'D HE COME FROM?—Many people would like to know how this grasshopper got inside the hermetically sealed speedometer panel of Earl Cole's 1953 Ford, but none has yet come up with an answer. Hartford, Conn. (AP) — Trinity College officials said a new freshman dormitory wasn't ready for the start of the new school year because: The excacation crew unexpectedly ran into a big boulder. Weekly Food Review

(By The Associated Press)

Lower prices for frying chickens and eggs will be features in many of the country's food stores this weekend. Beef prices will show little change. While pork and lamb will be higher in some sections and lower in others.

Reductions in frying chickens will range from two cents a pound in some New York and Pittsburgh stores to four cents a pound in Chicago. Egg prices, which have soared in recent weeks, will dip two to eight cents a dozen in many cities. An exception will be Los Angeles, where one large chain plans to increase the price by three cents a dozen.

A number of stores will feature turkeys. In the meat department, weekend specials will include rib roast, lamb shoulder cuts, round and chuck steak, ground beef and hams. In general, prices will be about in line with those of a week ago.

Decline About Over

Agriculture Secretary Benson indicated this week that he thinks the long decline in cattle prices is about over. He told the American Meat Institute at Chicago that the point has been reached where cattle production and slaughter rates are about equal.

Butter prices remained the same in most stores. One butter dealer reported that supplies were about equal to demand and predicted that any forthcoming price changes will be minor.

President Theodore G. Montague of the Borden Co. suggested this week that U. S. taxpayers have the choice of eating their way through the huge government surpluses of dairy products or letting them go to waste. He said Uncle Sam owns more than 252 million pounds of butter, 187 million pounds of cheese and 410 million pounds of dry skim milk.

Includes Beans

The bargain list of vegetables includes green beans, cauliflower, cabbage, onions, potatoes, spinach, squash and sweet potatoes. Vegetable men called carrots and cucumbers fair buys.

Good buys in fruit weren't numerous. The experts picked seedless and Tokay grapes as good investments and noted limes were cheap. Prunes were described as a pretty good buy. Cantaloupes and honeydew melons have become "luxury items," one fruit specialist said.

The Birds Eye Division of General Foods Corp. introduced a new product this week: pre-cooked fish sticks. Ocean fish is cleaned, cut by machines into a stick shape, dipped in a special batter and breaded, and then fried in deep fat. The housewife heats the sticks in her oven.

Thanksgiving Outlook

And here's some news about the outlook for Thanksgiving. President Bernard Simonsen of the Norbest Turkey Growers' Association told the organization's convention in Salt Lake City that consumers will be able to obtain good buys in turkeys for the holiday. He said there will be plenty of birds for everyone but not so many that the industry will have to worry about an over-supply.

Cranberries to go with that turkey may cost you a little more this year. Eatmor Cranberries Inc. announced at New Bedford, Mass., that the price of fresh cranberries has been hiked 25 cents a case. It said demand was heavy.

Prison Officers Convene; to Seek Several Benefits

Enactment of legislation for a basic 40-hour, five-day week was discussed fully during the first state-wide conference of prison officers of the American Federation of State, County and Municipal Employes, AFL, held Oct. 3 and 4 at the Hotel Washington in Newburgh.

Among the other primary objectives of the group also discussed was retaining the present salary for 48 hours, optional retirement after 20 or 25 years of service, additional increments at the completion of 10, 15 and 20 years of service, increased death benefits, widow's pensions and upward re-allocation of salaries of all guards.

The convention had as its chief task the co-ordination and implementation of a legislative program and the drafting and formulation of plans for cooperative efforts by prison officer locals in their future operations.

Eight Represented

Among the institutions represented at the convention sessions were Sing Sing, Napanoch, Wallkill, Coxsackie, Woodbourne, Attica, Elmira and Green Haven Prisons. A representative from each local was allowed to attend due to the granting of leaves of absences by Commissioner Edward J. Donovan.

According to Al Wurf, special representative, of the AFSCME hopes to bring to the public's attention the "archaic and difficult conditions under which prison officers are forced to work. Psychologists say that the most difficult type of work is dealing with personalities. School teachers and prison officers are concerned almost entirely with such work," Wurf said.

Although only eight delegates represented the prisons, 32 other prison officers also attended and expressed their opinions.

Army engineers and cavalry played an important part in surveying the route of the Union Pacific, first transcontinental railroad.

Safety Reminder

Raleigh, N. C. (AP)—North Carolina automobile license plates urge motorists to "Drive Safely." The slogan printed on the auto tags is part of a drive to reduce highway accidents. Motor Vehicles Commissioner Edward Scheidt said North Carolina is the first state to use a safety slogan on its license. He originally planned to have the slogan appear on 1954 licenses. It was put into use six months ahead of schedule when heavy automobile registration made it necessary to order a new series of 1953 plates.

Chamber to Talk Traffic Conditions

A city-wide merchants' meeting to discuss traffic problems as they relate to city streets, the New York State Thruway and the Kingston-Rhinecliff bridge will be held at the city hall, Thursday, Oct. 15 at 7:30 p. m.

The meeting is sponsored by the arterial route and traffic committee of the Kingston Chamber of Commerce and all businessmen are invited and urged to attend. Herbert C. Myers, chairman of the committee, will preside.

The committee has been studying the situation, and wants the suggestions and opinions of business representatives from all parts of the city. Mayor Oscar V. Newkirk will be present and will make some specific suggestions for the consideration of the group. The committee will also have some proposals to make.

A spokesman for the chamber stated that free-moving traffic and easy access to adequate parking are very important to the future development of the city. The open meeting on October 15, is being held to develop some plan which will meet these problems for years to come, be acceptable to the businessmen and be in the best interests of Kingston.

Prison Officers Convene; to Seek Several Benefits

Enactment of legislation for a basic 40-hour, five-day week was discussed fully during the first state-wide conference of prison officers of the American Federation of State, County and Municipal Employes, AFL, held Oct. 3 and 4 at the Hotel Washington in Newburgh.

Among the other primary objectives of the group also discussed was retaining the present salary for 48 hours, optional retirement after 20 or 25 years of service, additional increments at the completion of 10, 15 and 20 years of service, increased death benefits, widow's pensions and upward re-allocation of salaries of all guards.

The convention had as its chief task the co-ordination and implementation of a legislative program and the drafting and formulation of plans for cooperative efforts by prison officer locals in their future operations.

Eight Represented

Among the institutions represented at the convention sessions were Sing Sing, Napanoch, Wallkill, Coxsackie, Woodbourne, Attica, Elmira and Green Haven Prisons. A representative from each local was allowed to attend due to the granting of leaves of absences by Commissioner Edward J. Donovan.

According to Al Wurf, special representative, of the AFSCME hopes to bring to the public's attention the "archaic and difficult conditions under which prison officers are forced to work. Psychologists say that the most difficult type of work is dealing with personalities. School teachers and prison officers are concerned almost entirely with such work," Wurf said.

Although only eight delegates represented the prisons, 32 other prison officers also attended and expressed their opinions.

Army engineers and cavalry played an important part in surveying the route of the Union Pacific, first transcontinental railroad.

Safety Reminder

Raleigh, N. C. (AP)—North Carolina automobile license plates urge motorists to "Drive Safely." The slogan printed on the auto tags is part of a drive to reduce highway accidents. Motor Vehicles Commissioner Edward Scheidt said North Carolina is the first state to use a safety slogan on its license. He originally planned to have the slogan appear on 1954 licenses. It was put into use six months ahead of schedule when heavy automobile registration made it necessary to order a new series of 1953 plates.

FINAL REGISTRATION DAYS

Friday and Saturday are the final days of registration in the City of Kingston for the general election to be held November 3. The polls will be open Friday from 10 in the morning until 10 in the evening. On Saturday the polls will open at 7 a. m. and close at 10 p. m. Everyone should understand that unless he or she registers they cannot vote.

It should be considered an outstanding civic duty first to register and then to vote. The right of voting in this election is one of the great privileges of American citizenship, a voice given to every citizen without question of his religion, his color or his means.

This and all other privileges of citizenship are wasted on people who do not vote.

But you cannot vote unless you register this weekend.

HONEST APPRECIATION

The stand of 40,000 craftsmen backing Lieutenant Governor Arthur H. Wicks is a clear-cut demonstration of honest appreciation for his efforts in their behalf as a public servant.

Those who voted him into office time after time on his record in the New York State Senate were stimulated by the outcome of the meeting held by seven prominent labor leaders, who assured the Senator that he would have the support of their unions no matter what public office he sought.

Wicks can well feel proud of the tribute paid him by William Sorenson of Poughkeepsie, president of the Dutchess County Trades and Labor Council, who credits him with making American Federation of Labor history.

Sorenson feels that the Lieutenant Governor rendered a major service to the AFL by taking a stand in 1952 on limiting work done on roads and projects by maintenance crews of the state.

That labor meeting held in this city Wednesday was one of the greatest tributes ever paid to Wicks, a public figure who has been showered with praise many times for his accomplishments in governmental service.

Although not all of the delegates to the meeting are of the same political faith as the Lieutenant Governor, they have great confidence in him as a friend of labor, and their decision to stand behind him in what they term "a smear" episode demonstrates true democracy.

Their stand is a true picture of the liberal way of life, the way Wicks has always followed himself, regardless of a man's politics.

Some may consider his visits to Joseph S. Fay in Sing Sing prison, as an extreme measure but the 40,000 union members must feel that he made the calls in behalf of working men and that his motives were in the way of a public service as an elected representative of The People.

COALS AND COWS

"Carrying coals to Newcastle" is a traditional way of expressing unnecessary activity. Bringing milk to Guernsey, the Channel island famous for its dairy cattle, might seem the same sort of thing. Yet Guernsey now has to import milk from England to meet the tourist demand.

For this the Nazi occupation is responsible. Many of the best cattle were slaughtered or starved by the Germans. Eight years later Guernsey has not fully recovered.

EXPERIMENT IN PROPHECY

It is not necessary to be the seventh son of a seventh son to predict that the latest allied offer to Russia will be rejected. The United States, Great Britain and France, in identical notes, offered to lift restrictions on travel in Germany, both in the Western zones and the Russian, if the Soviets would do the same.

As the last thing Russia wants to do is to let its subjects realize the difference in living conditions between a Communist state and a capitalistic one, it is certain that the proposal will not be accepted. It may be rejected out of hand, or counterproposals may be made whose purpose is solely to bury the idea in talk.

Accepted it will not be. Still, for the sake of the record, it is well that the proposal has been made.

'These Days'

By GEORGE SOKOLSKY

OIL IS A PROBLEM

When one comes to a town like Tulsa, Oklahoma, the conversation soon turns to the subject of oil. Imports from foreign countries come to nearly two times the daily production of petroleum in Oklahoma, I am told, and nobody quite likes that. One matter that concerns oil men is the prospect of flooding the market with Iranian crude oil, which has been off the market since old Mossadegh drove the British out and to which act the world adjusted. That adjustment could be upset if the Iranian oil industry comes into full production.

The United States has undertaken to uphold the government of the Shah against the combination of Mossadegh and the Communist Tudeh Party. The Iranian government is financially bankrupt and must have the assistance of the United States either by subsidies or by the rehabilitation of the oil industry. Whether the British lien on the Iranian oil industry will be upheld by the United States or whether some other method will be worked out, Iranian oil is likely to come back on the market sooner or later.

The Independent Petroleum Association of America is to meet at Fort Worth this month to discuss the problems arising from the over-production of petroleum. Overproduction is a difficult term to use in relation to any commodity. At one period, all that appears on the market is purchased and consumed. Then comes a time when the same amount being produced, the market shows resistance. As regards oil, such resistance has already manifested itself so far as American oil production is concerned.

Already some of the oil states have cut the allowables, by which term is meant the amount of oil that may be taken from the ground each month. Oklahoma, Louisiana and Texas are cutting allowables by 35,000 to 85,000 barrels daily for October. Kansas has instituted a 10-day shutdown of oil wells beginning October 15.

Oil is an irreplaceable natural resource which has become essential to our civilization. Estimates about how soon we shall run out of oil have proved to be unfounded prophecies. Every time a frightening article on the subject is published, a new oil field is found or American engineers learn how to dig deeper or how to bring oil out of the ground more efficiently. Therefore, we are not dealing with an immediate lack of oil deposits. On the other hand, it would seem to be stupid to waste any natural resource and it would be wasteful if the price of oil were forced down to where it would be given away for practically nothing.

During a war period, such commodities as oil and steel are expanded to meet war consumption, which is necessarily wasteful. While a nation is in the despair of war and is losing its sons, it is impossible to consider the costs in national wealth.

Then comes a period of peace, during which there must be a retraction of production for two reasons, namely, that the requirements for consumption are less and the need for conservation of resources greater.

At first, the retraction is restricted because it may involve some unemployment, possibly a reduction in wages, surely a reduction in taxes. But the economics of the situation will assert themselves: when production exceeds consumption, production must be reduced.

This situation is complicated by the fact that we live in an era when government controls determine the nature of the market. There is no really free market in essential commodities anywhere. Therefore, governments actually determine how much of any commodity is to come on the market. For instance, countries which need dollars will flood the market with commodities with the object of getting dollars.

This problem is further complicated by the fact that most currencies are "soft" money with which the governments arrange to pay their workers, but when they export the commodities they produce, they sell for "hard" currency, that is, American dollars. They therefore undersell not because they are more efficient producers but because it pays them to get dollars at almost any cost.

Such unsound methods can only lead to disaster because there is no substitute for a free market, but politicians in all countries face economic problems not to achieve stability, but to keep themselves in office as of the moment. What comes after they are out of office or dead does not concern them.

That Body of Yours

By JAMES W. BARTON, M.D.

STILL OWE A DEBT TO THE MEDICINE MAN

As we think of the medicine men of savage tribes, we may wonder how their patients ever lived through the treatment given them, especially when we think of the great advance in the knowledge of medicine and drugs during the past few years. We are reminded of the great discoveries of today, of the gland products so greatly used by modern medicine men—insulin, thyroid and pituitary extract. These valuable drugs have wrought wonders in the treatment of goiter, diabetes, and other diseases.

What about the use of old-time medicines made from bark, roots and leaves?

In the Bureau of Industrial Service, J. R. Anderson, chief pharmacognosist, Parke Davis Co., states that modern scientific discoveries have brought such great changes in medicines that 90 per cent of physicians' prescriptions could not have been written a scant fifteen years ago.

This great progress would seem to all but eclipse ancient methods of medication. On the contrary, the value and potency of many barks, roots, and leaves are so great they still are imported from far-off places for use as ingredients in some medicines; thus we learn that one drug firm brings approximately 140 varieties of crude vegetable drugs into its United States plant each year for processing and manufacturing into well-known products or for research purposes.

The fact that tons and tons of these barks, roots, and leaves are imported yearly results in the warehouses of this and other drug manufacturers smelling "like the drugstores of 20 or more years ago." Many crude drugs arrive in containers that are peculiar to their home district, such as thin paper and varnish coverings from the Far East and woven straw baskets from Haiti.

Hundreds of years ago man discovered that these barks, roots and leaves had medicinal value. Early white settlers noted the Indian medicine man used them to perform "miracles." In the description of these crude vegetable drugs we learn that included are bark from a peach-like tree growing on the east slopes of the Andes in Bolivia — used as an ingredient in cough syrup; leaves of the Turnera shrub from Mexico—part of a tonic product, and roots from the gentian herb from France, Italy and Yugoslavia that are used to stimulate the appetite.

Thus, in the opinion of this research chemist, crude vegetable drugs will always have an important place in the manufacture of medicines.

As we think over this information regarding these old familiar drugs, we learn that despite all our new knowledge of life-saving drugs, we owe a real debt to the medicine men of savage tribes.

Swarming Time Again

Larsen's Washington News Notebook

By DOUGLAS LARSEN
NEA Washington Correspondent

Washington (NEA) — Should Uncle Sam give free hospital service to veterans for ailments which had nothing to do with their military service?

That question has now developed into a major issue between the American Medical Association and the big veterans' organizations. It's sure to be dumped in the lap of Congress during the next session.

Unfortunately, for public understanding of the issue, it's very complex, and it lends itself to emotional arguments on both sides.

The whole problem, which has been getting hotter for the past three years, broke into flame a few weeks ago when the AMA flatly announced that its No. 1 federal legislative goal for the coming year was getting the law changed to end treatment of veterans with non-service-connected ills.

AMA President Dr. Edward J. McCormick states his stand:

"There are persons who would make of war veterans a class of citizens apart from the rest of the nation. The campaign to perpetuate free medical care in government hospitals for veterans with non-service-connected disabilities is a prime example of this misguided thinking."

Now The Legion Says

A spokesman from the American Legion says this in defense of giving vets hospital care regardless of service connection:

"The law provides for this care of veterans and we don't think it should be changed. When a veteran is broke, sick and he has no place to go, we think it's Uncle Sam's duty to a man who has served his country to provide him medical care under the present provisions of the federal statutes."

One of the difficulties in this dispute is the lack of any positive statistics on just how much is spent by Uncle Sam on treatment of nonservice-connected cases and exactly how many patients in the two categories there are in Veterans' Administration hospitals.

The latest set of figures in the VA bed population for the day of Jan. 31, 1953. VA makes a spot check on one day, assuming that it gives a typical picture. There are no yearly figures which produce a comparable breakdown.

On that day, VA reveals, there were 49,490 service-connected cases in the hospitals and 54,512 nonservice-connected cases. Both AMA and the Legion agree that those figures are approximately correct. But from there on the statistics get thicker and the debate more complicated.

The Legion claims that the AMA is really only interested in about 10,000 of the nonservice-connected cases. That number includes patients who will stay less than 90 days and who possibly could have paid a private doctor and hospital for that treatment. The VA does not confirm the 10,000 figure.

Rest Are Chronic Cases

The rest of the non-service-connected cases, the Legion contends, are veterans suffering chronic illnesses, TB or some psychiatric trouble. They're mostly hopeless cases who have no money and would have to be supported by the taxpayers in one way or another. As customers, they would not be worth a dime to private doctors or hospitals.

AMA's position on the chronic, TB and psychiatric cases is that as soon as possible veterans suffering such disorders should be thrown out of Uncle Sam's VA hospitals and be forced into local hospitals and institutions. VA facilities would then be limited strictly to veterans suffering disorders resulting from their service.

The question of how much money is involved is another cloudy area of debate. Dr. McCormick says, "VA spent more than $500 million last year on medical care, of which amount only $178,000,000 went for the care of service-connected disabilities."

The VA does not confirm that estimate, either. A spokesman claims there is no way to break down the cost of its medical program to show this cost.

The American Legion, on the other hand, claims that the sum in dispute is only $73,000,000. That's the cost of maintaining 10,000 beds for one year.

Britain Advised to Study Petition Against Reds as China Representatives in UN

By DAVID LAWRENCE

Washington, Oct. 8—The government of Great Britain and the press of that country might well ponder the text of the petition which has just been sponsored by seven prominent Americans, who are saying to President Eisenhower that "the Chinese Communists are not entitled to and should not be recognized to represent China in the United Nations." That's because up to now the British newspapers and officials seem to think only a fragment of American opinion and the press is against the admission of Red China to the UN.

But the petition is signed by Senator Sparkman of Alabama, who was the vice-presidential nominee of the Democratic Party in 1952, and Representative John W. McCormack of Massachusetts, leader of the Democratic Party in the House of Representatives at the last session and now the No. 2 man in the House on the Democratic side. It is signed by former Governor Edison of New Jersey, who was in the cabinet of President Franklin D. Roosevelt, and by Joseph C. Grew, former ambassador to Japan and at one time undersecretary of state in the Democratic Administration. It is sponsored also by former President Hoover, Senator H. Alexander Smith of New Jersey and Representative Walter H. Judd of Minnesota—all Republicans.

Many British newspapers and officials have frequently expressed themselves on the subject of recognizing Red China's government, arguing that it is related solely to whether a government is in military control of the country in question. But in the last few days the British Labor Party and various British newspapers have again denounced the Franco government in Spain—which is in complete control of that country—and argued against its admission into either the UN or NATO.

So the argument which bases recognition of a government solely on its military control of a country is plainly specious. The American attitude, on the other hand, primarily is relayed to the lack of morality in the Red China government.

The new petition gives these reasons for opposing the admission of Red China to the UN:

"1. This admission would destroy the purposes, betray the letter, and violate the spirit of the law of the United Nations whose charter dedicates the organization to insure peace by promoting freedom and respect of human rights, and subordinates the admission of new states to the organization to their ability and willingness, in the judgement of the member nations, to carry out the obligations to the charter as defined above. The so-called Chinese People's Republic is constitutionally unable to do so since it officially declares itself to be a 'dictatorship' based on 'democratic centralism,' (Articles I and II of the Organic Law of the central government of the Chinese People's Republic). This is the basic principle of Communist totalitarianism and excludes freedom of discussion or criticism of government; that is, it excludes freedom of democracy altogether.

"2. Even if the so-called Chinese People's Republic were eligible for admission under the charter the fact still remains that the duly constituted government of China exists and functions, not only as the rightful government of China but as a charter member of the United Nations. In order to give membership to the usurpers the legitimate government of China would have to be expelled. Such action would be an unthinkable outrage against human decency and international justice.

"3. The so-called Chinese People's Republic has shown its unwillingness to carry out the obligations of the charter by systematically disregarding every human right and violating every freedom.

"4. By aiding in aggression upon South Korea and making war on the United Nations it has proved itself an aggressor state.

"5. Its admission would destroy the prestige and the position of the United States and of the free world in Asia. The countries of that continent which still resist Communist aggression or infiltration would be discouraged by the cynical surrender of the free world to expediency and appeasement and the betrayal of the ideals of the United Nations. The Asian nations, in turn, would then make fatal compromises with the Communist bloc.

"6. The so-called Chinese People's Republic violated the most elemental laws of war in mistreating, torturing, and murdering United Nations soldiers who were prisoners of war, in an unlawful war which they waged against the very organization in which their supporters now claim membership for them.

"7. At a time when Communist dictatorship seems to be badly shaken inside the USSR and in its satellite empire, the admission of the so-called Chinese People's Republic to the United Nations would restore the prestige and authority of the Soviet government. It would help to destroy the hope of the enslaved peoples for ultimate freedom. This hope is one of the chief deterrents which has restrained the Kremlin from risking a world-wide conflict.

"8. The admission of the so-called Chinese People's Republic to the United Nations would encourage subversive totalitarian movements in the free nations of the world in the expectation that their success would be sanctioned by the free nations which will survive. Thus the danger of a new war would be vastly increased by the rewards offered to aggressors.

AS PEGLER SEES IT

By WESTBROOK PEGLER

Judge William S. Bleakley, of Yonkers, Westchester county, N. Y., a rich and highly influential Republican politician with the unmistakable earmarks of the New Dealer, has turned up in a familiar type of association in connection with the murder of Thomas F. Lewis, the racketeer of the building service union and the harness track in Yonkers. Bleakley is counsel for the mob-ruled harness layout and it soon developed that he had visited Joe Fay in Sing Sing in the interests of Fay's application for a parole.

On June 12, 1942, Bleakley deposited a check for $2,500, "for professional services" paid to him, individually, by one of the most notorious crooks of the combination of rotten unions which had been extorting enormous bundles of money from the public treasury, from contractors and from toilers of the Delaware Aqueduct. The check was drawn on the Yonkers National Bank and Trust Company and on the account of Local 60 of the Hodcarriers' and Common Laborers' Union and was signed by James Bove as "trustee." Bove went to prison in the futile "cleanup" of the extortion racket which involved many politicians of both parties, and many contractors on excavation and construction jobs. When this check was first exposed, Bleakley explained that he had performed legal services for Local 60, one of a circle of racket unions, and that the fee was legitimate and reasonable.

Fay, normally of the Frank Hague-Roosevelt political faith in New Jersey, but very influential in New York, continued to deal in politics and union affairs from his cell. During these years his wife, also a frequent caller, was drawing a general salary from Fay's home local in New Jersey and received an expensive car from the union. She apparently was the transmission belt by which Fay continued to exert his powerful influence. Fay now has been transferred to Dannemora, known to the underworld and the police as "Siberia," by order of Governor Dewey. Bleakley's client, Bove, got from 10 to 20 years on conviction in New York county (Manhattan) for extortion, larceny and conspiracy to extort. However, Bleakley did not represent him at the trial.

Fay met his masters in the persons of Frank Hogan and Vincent O'Connor, district attorney and assistant D.A. of New York county. Hogan and O'Connor found themselves beset by so much political conspiracy and pressure that Hogan asked Governor Dewey to bring in an outside judge to try the case. Even so, the judge received a personal call just before he left for New York from an acquaintance who told him his future was guaranteed financially if he would corruptly throw the case to Fay. This could have been done by "innocent" reversible errors or other tricks familiar to jurisprudence.

State Senator William F. Condon, of Yonkers, another powerful machine Republican of the Bleakley group and chairman of the Senate Committee on Labor and Industry, was named in a number of union checks. One, payable to "Cash," was drawn by Bove as "trustee' of Hodcarriers' Local 60 on Oct. 9, 1940. It bore on the reverse side the words "Advertising and Campaign Committee of Labor for William F. Condon Campaign. The amount was $500. There was another for $500 drawn Sept. 23, payable to the Yonkers Record, a weekly, endorsed "Yonkers Record." The stub said "Donation for a Condon Campaign." Another check for $500, made to Condon on Oct. 7 was voided. A check to "Cash" for $500, signed by Bove as trustee, was endorsed in pencil simply "Bill." The stub said "William F. Condon." It had been cashed at the Central National Bank of Yonkers where Condon had an account. The date was April 11, 1941.

Condon escorted George Meany, president of the American Federation of Labor, to Sing Sing to call on Fay. Meany's name did not appear on the visiting list, and the visit therefore did not count against Fay's quota. Meany said Fay talked only about his desire to get out. Meany, who poses as a "reform" president of the AF of L, has condemned Joe Ryan of the Longshoremen, although Ryan has never been convicted of anything yet.

The checks to Bleakley and Condon were turned up by Edward O'Neill as assistant to the state attorney general in the initial expose in 1942 of the Delaware aqueduct extortions which centered around Newburgh on the West Shore.

Arthur H. Wicks, now lieutenant governor, a Republican in the same circle with Bleakley and Condon, also has been exposed as a frequent visitor to the throne of Joe Fay in Sing Sing. He has been a state senator for many years and is the political boss and arbiter of union fights and rivalries in four counties on the West Shore of the Hudson. His area has sparse population but a tremendous volume of union racketeering on construction for the New York City Water Supply.

O'Neill found another $1,000 check on the treasury of Locals 137 and two subsidiary locals "A" and "B," dated Jan. 24, 1940, and endorsed and cashed by Martin J. Parkinson, the business agent, and by Fay, the vice-president of the parent international union, with this explanation on the back: "Expenses to convention of the International Union of Operating Engineers, Washington, D. C." Parkinson got three years and served his time. William J. McGeory, another thieving parasite on labor, got the same term for the same crime but died on bail pending appeal. These two were members of a draft board in Yonkers. Their Local 137 of the Engineers had joint offices with Bove's Local 60 of the Hodcarriers.

The $1,000 check of Jan. 24 was followed soon by two more healthy belts at the treasury of Local 137 for $3,000 each, dated Jan. 30 and Feb. 2, cashed at the Everglades Hotel in Miami.

Bleakley and members of his law firm have ridden high, wide and handsome in Westchester county. They have monopolized the job of county executive for years and are about to plant another member of the firm in the same job for another four-year term at $27,000 a year. Westchester county is richer in assessed valuation than many of the individual states and therefore has a job comparable to that of governor known as "county executive." Bleakley held it four years, one law partner named Herbert Gerlach holds it now, and another partner, James D. Hopkins, Jr., is up for election for the next term. It is a job with great powers of patronage and privilege in a county which has been "aristocratic" and at the same time quietly reeking with union corruption and vice, especially in Yonkers, for many years.

KINGSTON, NEW YORK, OCTOBER 8, 1953

FINAL REGISTRATION DAYS

Friday and Saturday are the final days of registration in the City of Kingston for the general election to be held November 3. The polls will be open Friday from 10 in the morning until 10 in the evening. On Saturday the polls will open at 7 a. m. and close at 10 p. m. Everyone should understand that unless he or she registers they cannot vote.

It should be considered an outstanding civic duty first to register and then to vote. The right of voting in this election is one of the great privileges of American citizenship, a voice given to every citizen without question of his religion, his color or his means.

This and all other privileges of citizenship are wasted on people who do not vote.

But you cannot vote unless you register this weekend.

HONEST APPRECIATION

The stand of 40,000 craftsmen backing Lieutenant Governor Arthur H. Wicks is a clear-cut demonstration of honest appreciation for his efforts in their behalf as a public servant.

Those who voted him into office time after time on his record in the New York State Senate were stimulated by the outcome of the meeting held by seven prominent labor leaders, who assured the Senator that he would have the support of their unions no matter what public office he sought.

Wicks can well feel proud of the tribute paid him by William Sorenson of Poughkeepsie, president of the Dutchess County Trades and Labor Council, who credits him with making American Federation of Labor history.

Sorenson feels that the Lieutenant Governor rendered a major service to the AFL by taking a stand in 1952 on limiting work done on roads and projects by maintenance crews of the state.

That labor meeting held in this city Wednesday was one of the greatest tributes ever paid to Wicks, a public figure who has been showered with praise many times for his accomplishments in governmental service.

Although not all of the delegates to the meeting are of the same political faith as the Lieutenant Governor, they have great confidence in him as a friend of labor, and their decision to stand behind him in what they term "a smear" episode demonstrates true democracy.

Their stand is a true picture of the liberal way of life, the way Wicks has always followed himself, regardless of a man's politics.

Some may consider his visits to Joseph S. Fay in Sing Sing prison, as an extreme measure but the 40,000 union members must feel that he made the calls in behalf of working men and that his motives were in the way of a public service as an elected representative of The People.

COALS AND COWS

"Carrying coals to Newcastle" is a traditional way of expressing unnecessary activity. Bringing milk to Guernsey, the Channel island famous for its dairy cattle, might seem the same sort of thing. Yet Guernsey now has to import milk from England to meet the tourist demand.

For this the Nazi occupation is responsible. Many of the best cattle were slaughtered or starved by the Germans. Eight years later Guernsey has not fully recovered.

EXPERIMENT IN PROPHECY

It is not necessary to be the seventh son of a seventh son to predict that the latest allied offer to Russia will be rejected. The United States, Great Britain and France, in identical notes, offered to lift restrictions on travel in Germany, both in the Western zones and the Russian, if the Soviets would do the same.

As the last thing Russia wants to do is to let its subjects realize the difference in living conditions between a Communist state and a capitalistic one, it is certain that the proposal will not be accepted. It may be rejected out of hand, or counterproposals may be made whose purpose is solely to bury the idea in talk.

Accepted it will not be. Still, for the sake of the record, it is well that the proposal has been made.

'These Days'

By GEORGE SOKOLSKY

OIL IS A PROBLEM

When one comes to a town like Tulsa, Oklahoma, the conversation soon turns to the subject of oil. Imports from foreign countries come to nearly two times the daily production of petroleum in Oklahoma, I am told, and nobody quite likes that. One matter that concerns oil men is the prospect of flooding the market with Iranian crude oil, which has been off the market since old Mossadegh drove the British out and to which act the world adjusted. That adjustment could be upset if the Iranian oil industry comes into full production.

The United States has undertaken to uphold the government of the Shah against the combination of Mossadegh and the Communist Tudeh Party. The Iranian government is financially bankrupt and must have the assistance of the United States either by subsidies or by the rehabilitation of the oil industry. Whether the British lien on the Iranian oil industry will be upheld by the United States or whether some other method will be worked out, Iranian oil is likely to come back on the market sooner or later.

The Independent Petroleum Association of America is to meet at Fort Worth this month to discuss the problems arising from the over-production of petroleum. Overproduction is a difficult term to use in relation to any commodity. At one period, all that appears on the market is purchased and consumed. Then comes a time when the same amount being produced, the market shows resistance. As regards oil, such resistance has already manifested itself so far as American oil production is concerned.

Already some of the oil states have cut the allowables, by which term is meant the amount of oil that may be taken from the ground each month. Oklahoma, Louisiana and Texas are cutting allowables by 35,000 to 85,000 barrels daily for October. Kansas has instituted a 10-day shutdown of oil wells beginning October 15.

Oil is an irreplaceable natural resource which has become essential to our civilization. Estimates about how soon we shall run out of oil have proved to be unfounded prophecies. Every time a frightening article on the subject is published, a new oil field is found or American engineers learn how to dig deeper or how to bring oil out of the ground more efficiently. Therefore, we are not dealing with an immediate lack of oil deposits. On the other hand, it would seem to be stupid to waste any natural resource and it would be wasteful if the price of oil were forced down to where it would be given away for practically nothing.

During a war period, such commodities as oil and steel are expanded to meet war consumption, which is necessarily wasteful. While a nation is in the despair of war and is losing its sons, it is impossible to consider the costs in national wealth.

Then comes a period of peace, during which there must be a retraction of production for two reasons, namely, that the requirements for consumption are less and the need for conservation of resources greater.

At first, the retraction is restricted because it may involve some unemployment, possibly a reduction in wages, surely a reduction in taxes. But the economics of the situation will assert themselves: when production exceeds consumption, production must be reduced.

This situation is complicated by the fact that we live in an era when government controls determine the nature of the market. There is no really free market in essential commodities anywhere. Therefore, governments actually determine how much of any commodity is to come on the market. For instance, countries which need dollars will flood the market with commodities with the object of getting dollars.

This problem is further complicated by the fact that most currencies are "soft" money with which the governments arrange to pay their workers, but when they export the commodities they produce, they sell for "hard" currency, that is, American dollars. They therefore undersell not because they are more efficient producers but because it pays them to get dollars at almost any cost.

Such unsound methods can only lead to disaster because there is no substitute for a free market, but politicians in all countries face economic problems not to achieve stability, but to keep themselves in office as of the moment. What comes after they are out of office or dead does not concern them.

That Body of Yours

STILL OWE A DEBT TO THE MEDICINE MAN

As we think of the medicine men of savage tribes, we may wonder how their patients ever lived through the treatment given them, especially when we think of the great advance in the knowledge of medicine and drugs during the past few years. We are reminded of the great discoveries of today, of the gland products so greatly used by modern medicine men—insulin, thyroid and pituitary extract. These valuable drugs have wrought wonders in the treatment of goiter, diabetes, and other diseases.

What about the use of old-time medicines made from bark, roots and leaves?

In the Bureau of Industrial Service, J. R. Anderson, chief pharmacognosist, Parke Davis Co., states that modern scientific discoveries have brought such great changes in medicines that 90 per cent of physicians' prescriptions could not have been written a scant fifteen years ago.

This great progress would seem to all but eclipse ancient methods of medication. On the contrary, the value and potency of many barks, roots, and leaves are so great they still are imported from far-off places for use as ingredients in some medicines; thus we learn that one drug firm brings approximately 140 varieties of crude vegetable drugs into its United States plant each year for processing and manufacturing into well-known products or for research purposes.

The fact that tons and tons of these barks, roots, and leaves are imported yearly results in the warehouses of this and other drug manufacturers smelling "like the drugstores of 20 or more years ago." Many crude drugs arrive in containers that are peculiar to their home district, such as thin paper and varnish coverings from the Far East and woven straw baskets from Haiti.

Hundreds of years ago man discovered that these barks, roots and leaves had medicinal value. Early white settlers noted the Indian medicine man used them to perform "miracles." In the description of these crude vegetable drugs we learn that included are bark from a peach-like tree growing on the east slopes of the Andes in Bolivia — used as an ingredient in cough syrup; leaves of the Turnera shrub from Mexico—part of a tonic product, and roots from the gentian herb from France, Italy and Yugoslavia that are used to stimulate the appetite.

Thus, in the opinion of this research chemist, crude vegetable drugs will always have an important place in the manufacture of medicines.

As we think over this information regarding these old familiar drugs, we learn that despite all our new knowledge of life-saving drugs, we owe a real debt to the medicine men of savage tribes.

Swarming Time Again

Larsen's Washington News Notebook

By DOUGLAS LARSEN
NEA Washington Correspondent

Washington (NEA) — Should Uncle Sam give free hospital service to veterans for ailments which had nothing to do with their military service?

That question has now developed into a major issue between the American Medical Association and the big veterans' organizations. It's sure to be dumped in the lap of Congress during the next session.

Unfortunately, for public understanding of the issue, it's very complex, and it lends itself to emotional arguments on both sides.

The whole problem, which has been getting hotter for the past three years, broke into flame a few weeks ago when the AMA flatly announced that its No. 1 federal legislative goal for the coming year was getting the law changed to end treatment of veterans with non-service-connected ills.

AMA President Dr. Edward J. McCormick states his stand:

"There are persons who would make of war veterans a class of citizens apart from the rest of the nation. The campaign to perpetuate free medical care in government hospitals for veterans with non-service-connected disabilities is a prime example of this misguided thinking."

Now The Legion Says

A spokesman from the American Legion says this in defense of giving vets hospital care regardless of service connection:

"The law provides for this care of veterans and we don't think it should be changed. When a veteran is broke, sick and he has no place to go, we think it's Uncle Sam's duty to a man who has served his country to provide him medical care under the present provisions of the federal statutes."

One of the difficulties in this dispute is the lack of any positive statistics on just how much is spent by Uncle Sam on treatment of nonservice-connected cases and exactly how many patients in the two categories there are in Veterans' Administration hospitals.

The latest set of figures in the VA bed population for the day of Jan. 31, 1953. VA makes a spot check on one day, assuming that it gives a typical picture. There are no yearly figures which produce a comparable breakdown.

On that day, VA reveals, there were 49,490 service-connected cases in the hospitals and 54,512 nonservice-connected cases. Both AMA and the Legion agree that those figures are approximately correct. But from there on the statistics get thicker and the debate more complicated.

The Legion claims that the AMA is really only interested in about 10,000 of the nonservice-connected cases. That number includes patients who will stay less than 90 days and who possibly could have paid a private doctor and hospital for that treatment. The VA does not confirm the 10,000 figure.

Rest Are Chronic Cases

The rest of the non-service-connected cases, the Legion contends, are veterans suffering chronic illnesses, TB or some psychiatric trouble. They're mostly hopeless cases who have no money and would have to be supported by the taxpayers in one way or another. As customers, they would not be worth a dime to private doctors or hospitals.

AMA's position on the chronic, TB and psychiatric cases is that as soon as possible veterans suffering such disorders should be thrown out of Uncle Sam's VA hospitals and be forced into local hospitals and institutions. VA facilities would then be limited strictly to veterans suffering disorders resulting from their service.

The question of how much money is involved is another cloudy area of debate. Dr. McCormick says, "VA spent more than $500 million last year on medical care, of which amount only $178,000,000 went for the care of service-connected disabilities."

The VA does not confirm that estimate, either. A spokesman claims there is no way to break down the cost of its medical program to show this cost.

The American Legion, on the other hand, claims that the sum in dispute is only $73,000,000. That's the cost of maintaining 10,000 beds for one year.

Britain Advised to Study Petition Against Reds as China Representatives in UN

By DAVID LAWRENCE

Washington, Oct. 8—The government of Great Britain and the press of that country might well ponder the text of the petition which has just been sponsored by seven prominent Americans, who are saying to President Eisenhower that "the Chinese Communists are not entitled to and should not be recognized to represent China in the United Nations." That's because up to now the British newspapers and officials seem to think only a fragment of American opinion and the press is against the admission of Red China to the UN.

But the petition is signed by Senator Sparkman of Alabama, who was the vice-presidential nominee of the Democratic Party in 1952, and Representative John W. McCormack of Massachusetts, leader of the Democratic Party in the House of Representatives at the last session and now the No. 2 man in the House on the Democratic side. It is signed by former Governor Edison of New Jersey, who was in the cabinet of President Franklin D. Roosevelt, and by Joseph C. Grew, former ambassador to Japan and at one time undersecretary of state in the Democratic Administration. It is sponsored also by former President Hoover, Senator H. Alexander Smith of New Jersey and Representative Walter H. Judd of Minnesota—all Republicans.

Many British newspapers and officials have frequently expressed themselves on the subject of recognizing Red China's government, arguing that it is related solely to whether a government is in military control of the country in question. But in the last few days the British Labor Party and various British newspapers have again denounced the Franco government in Spain—which is in complete control of that country—and argued against its admission into either the UN or NATO.

So the argument which bases recognition of a government solely on its military control of a country is plainly specious. The American attitude, on the other hand, primarily is relayed to the lack of morality in the Red China government.

The new petition gives these reasons for opposing the admission of Red China to the UN:

"1. This admission would destroy the purposes, betray the letter, and violate the spirit of the law of the United Nations whose charter dedicates the organization to insure peace by promoting freedom and respect of human rights, and subordinates the admission of new states to the organization to their ability and willingness, in the judgement of the member nations, to carry out the obligations to the charter as defined above. The so-called Chinese People's Republic is constitutionally unable to do so since it officially declares itself to be a 'dictatorship' based on 'democratic centralism,' (Articles I and II of the Organic Law of the central government of the Chinese People's Republic). This is the basic principle of Communist totalitarianism and excludes freedom of discussion or criticism of government; that is, it excludes freedom of democracy altogether.

"2. Even if the so-called Chinese People's Republic were eligible for admission under the charter the fact still remains that the duly constituted government of China exists and functions, not only as the rightful government of China but as a charter member of the United Nations. In order to give membership to the usurpers the legitimate government of China would have to be expelled. Such action would be an unthinkable outrage against human decency and international justice.

"3. The so-called Chinese People's Republic has shown its unwillingness to carry out the obligations of the charter by systematically disregarding every human right and violating every freedom.

"4. By aiding in aggression upon South Korea and making war on the United Nations it has proved itself an aggressor state.

"5. Its admission would destroy the prestige and the position of the United States and of the free world in Asia. The countries of that continent which still resist Communist aggression or infiltration would be discouraged by the cynical surrender of the free world to expediency and appeasement and the betrayal of the ideals of the United Nations. The Asian nations, in turn, would then make fatal compromises with the Communist bloc.

"6. The so-called Chinese People's Republic violated the most elemental laws of war in mistreating, torturing, and murdering United Nations soldiers who were prisoners of war, in an unlawful war which they waged against the very organization in which their supporters now claim membership for them.

"7. At a time when Communist dictatorship seems to be badly shaken inside the USSR and in its satellite empire, the admission of the so-called Chinese People's Republic to the United Nations would restore the prestige and authority of the Soviet government. It would help to destroy the hope of the enslaved peoples for ultimate freedom. This hope is one of the chief deterrents which has restrained the Kremlin from risking a world-wide conflict.

"8. The admission of the so-called Chinese People's Republic to the United Nations would encourage subversive totalitarian movements in the free nations of the world in the expectation that their success would be sanctioned by the free nations which will survive. Thus the danger of a new war would be vastly increased by the rewards offered to aggressors.

AS PEGLER SEES IT

By WESTBROOK PEGLER

Judge William S. Bleakley, of Yonkers, Westchester county, N. Y., a rich and highly influential Republican politician with the unmistakable earmarks of the New Dealer, has turned up in a familiar type of association in connection with the murder of Thomas F. Lewis, the racketeer of the building service union and the harness track in Yonkers. Bleakley is counsel for the mob-ruled harness layout and it soon developed that he had visited Joe Fay in Sing Sing in the interests of Fay's application for a parole.

On June 12, 1942, Bleakley deposited a check for $2,500, "for professional services" paid to him, individually, by one of the most notorious crooks of the combination of rotten unions which had been extorting enormous bundles of money from the public treasury, from contractors and from toilers of the Delaware Aqueduct. The check was drawn on the Yonkers National Bank and Trust Company and on the account of Local 60 of the Hodcarriers' and Common Laborers' Union and was signed by James Bove as "trustee." Bove went to prison in the futile "cleanup" of the extortion racket which involved many politicians of both parties, and many contractors on excavation and construction jobs. When this check was first exposed, Bleakley explained that he had performed legal services for Local 60, one of a circle of racket unions, and that the fee was legitimate and reasonable.

Fay, normally of the Frank Hague-Roosevelt political faith in New Jersey, but very influential in New York, continued to deal in politics and union affairs from his cell. During these years his wife, also a frequent caller, was drawing a general salary from Fay's home local in New Jersey and received an expensive car from the union. She apparently was the transmission belt by which Fay continued to exert his powerful influence. Fay now has been transferred to Dannemora, known to the underworld and the police as "Siberia," by order of Governor Dewey. Bleakley's client, Bove, got from 10 to 20 years on conviction in New York county (Manhattan) for extortion, larceny and conspiracy to extort. However, Bleakley did not represent him at the trial.

Fay met his masters in the persons of Frank Hogan and Vincent O'Connor, district attorney and assistant D.A. of New York county. Hogan and O'Connor found themselves beset by so much political conspiracy and pressure that Hogan asked Governor Dewey to bring in an outside judge to try the case. Even so, the judge received a personal call just before he left for New York from an acquaintance who told him his future was guaranteed financially if he would corruptly throw the case to Fay. This could have been done by "innocent" reversible errors or other tricks familiar to jurisprudence.

State Senator William F. Condon, of Yonkers, another powerful machine Republican of the Bleakley group and chairman of the Senate Committee on Labor and Industry, was named in a number of union checks. One, payable to "Cash," was drawn by Bove as "trustee' of Hodcarriers' Local 60 on Oct. 9, 1940. It bore on the reverse side the words "Advertising and Campaign Committee of Labor for William F. Condon Compaign. The amount was $500. There was another for $500 drawn Sept. 23, payable to the Yonkers Record, a weekly, endorsed "Yonkers Record." The stub said "Donation for a Condon Campaign." Another check for $500, made to Condon on Oct. 7 was voided. A check to "Cash" for $500, signed by Bove as trustee, was endorsed in pencil simply "Bill." The stub said "William F. Condon." It had been cashed at the Central National Bank of Yonkers where Condon had an account. The date was April 11, 1941.

Condon escorted George Meany, president of the American Federation of Labor, to Sing Sing to call on Fay. Meany's name did not appear on the visiting list, and the visit therefore did not count against Fay's quota. Meany said Fay talked only about his desire to get out. Meany, who poses as a "reform" president of the AF of L, has condemned Joe Ryan of the Longshoremen, although Ryan has never been convicted of anything yet.

The checks to Bleakley and Condon were turned up by Edward O'Neill as assistant to the state attorney general in the initial expose in 1942 of the Delaware aqueduct extortions which centered around Newburgh on the West Shore.

Arthur H. Wicks, now lieutenant governor, a Republican in the same circle with Bleakley and Condon, also has been exposed as a frequent visitor to the throne of Joe Fay in Sing Sing. He has been a state senator for many years and is the political boss and arbiter of union fights and rivalries in four counties on the West Shore of the Hudson. His area has sparse population but a tremendous volume of union racketeering on construction for the New York City Water Supply.

O'Neill found another $1,000 check on the treasury of Locals 137 and two subsidiary locals "A" and "B," dated Jan. 24, 1940, and endorsed and cashed by Martin J. Parkinson, the business agent, and by Fay, the vice-president of the parent international union, with this explanation on the back: "Expenses to convention of the International Union of Operating Engineers, Washington, D. C." Parkinson got three years and served his time. William J. McGeory, another thieving parasite on labor, got the same term for the same crime but died on bail pending appeal. These two were members of a draft board in Yonkers. Their Local 137 of the Engineers had joint offices with Bove's Local 60 of the Hodcarriers.

The $1,000 check of Jan. 24 was followed soon by two more healthy belts at the treasury of Local 137 for $3,000 each, dated Jan. 30 and Feb. 2, cashed at the Everglades Hotel in Miami.

Bleakley and members of his law firm have ridden high, wide and handsome in Westchester county. They have monopolized the job of county executive for years and are about to plant another member of the firm in the same job for another four-year term at $27,000 a year. Westchester county is richer in assessed valuation than many of the individual states and therefore has a job comparable to that of governor known as "county executive." Bleakley held it four years, one law partner named Herbert Gerlach holds it now, and another partner, James D. Hopkins, Jr., is up for election for the next term. It is a job with great powers of patronage and privilege in a county which has been "aristocratic" and at the same time quietly reeking with union corruption and vice, especially in Yonkers, for many years.

Punches Father, Takes Own Life

New York, Oct. 8 (AP)—A 17-year-old boy, fearing he had killed his father in an altercation, stood on a subway track yesterday and let a train grind him to death.

His father later was found unhurt from a punch thrown by the boy.

Police said Gerald Rosenthal, a Brooklyn high school senior, had in a pocket a note which read: "I just killed my father. I leave all my worldly goods to my mother."

Couldn't Stop in Time

The motorman of the train, who could not stop it in time, said the boy "covered his eyes with his hand and waited."

The boy had punched his father, Jack Rosenthal, 47, an Internal Revenue service clerk, during an argument and saw him stagger backward and appear to fall on a sidewalk in front of their home.

Notified of the boy's death, the father, who had a small bruise, said "he didn't hurt me. I didn't fall . . . he didn't have to do this."

Miller Testifies

Glove Corp., of Gloversville, called him and complained that a revenue agent named Nudelman was looking into his 1946 taxes.

Miller said he talked with Talanger about it and the latter told him, "Nudelman is a tough agent and very little can be done with him. I'll talk to O'Brien and have the case assigned to another agent."

Miller testified that Rourke took over the case and was paid $3,000 by Snyder. Miller said the sum eventually was split between himself, Rourke, O'Brien and Talanker.

Miller said Talanker asked him to give $50 of his share to Gertrude Moore, O'Brien's secretary, saying he had "access to the files in O'Brien's office."

Miller then brought up the name of defendant Abraham Inkeles who, the witness said, introduced himself in 1948 and told him he had heard he (Miller) was "a regular fellow."

Miller said Inkeles at that time was interested in the tax return of Orloff C. Barlow, operator of a hotel at East Durham.

Miller said he failed to find anything wrong with Barlow's return but quoted Inkeles as saying: "Do the best you can if you can get anything out of it."

Says He Paid $400

Eventually, Miller said, Barlow paid $400 for a "a fix."

Miller and Zelnick await sentencing after conviction on charges of extorting $3,000 from two Cairo, businessmen.

Miller further testified that Talanker received $6,000 to "overlook" certain items in the returns of Morris Spector of Spector Bros. Inc., a produce firm of Hudson and Germantown.

In July, 1946, Miller said, Talanker asked Spector whether he included in his tax report the making of $60,000 in loans.

Miller, who said he acted as an accountant for Spector, testified he asked Talanker, "what would you do to make up a favorable report?"

Talanker, Miller said, replied, "I would have to get $10,000 for myself."

But later, Miller said Talanker agreed to take $6,000.

The witness added:

"Spector said he was glad he reduced the amount and would throw in a set of tires. Talanker stated the money would have to be paid in cash and he would like to dispose of the matter as soon as possible. Spector told Talanker he would see. Talanker got the money."

The five former agents went on trial Monday, specifically accused of conspiring to defraud the United States by allegedly failing to administer the revenue laws free from corruption and fraud.

The trial continues today before Judge Henry W. Goddard and a jury of five women and seven men.

Salvation Army Work Outlined at Rotary

Attorney S. James Matthews, general chairman of the current Salvation Army drive to raise $8,000 to carry on the work of the Kingston Corps, reviewed the work of the local organization at the Rotary Club luncheon-meeting Wednesday.

A movie also was shown which depicted the many activities of the local Salvation Army Corps in this area.

Clash With Police

Berlin, Oct. 8 (AP)—Angry crowds clashed with Communist police in at least two Russian zone cities on the state holiday marking the fourth anniversary of the East German Republic yesterday, according to the West Berlin newspaper Der Tag. The paper said the clashes occurred at Erfurt, Thuringia, and Dresden, Saxony, when people's police squads were sent out to remove anti-Communist slogans on government and Communist party buildings. The slogans demanded the holding of free elections. Eight demonstrators were reported arrested at Erfurt and five at Dresden.

Address Unknown

Pageland (AP)—The weekly Pageland Journal carries this warning for safe driving: "Subscribers to the paper are getting harder and harder to find, so we have to try like everything to keep the ones we have. Please, don't go get yourself banged into an eternal address—we can't send your paper there."

Register Tomorrow

Friday and Saturday are the final days of registration in the City of Kingston. Tomorrow the polls will be open to 10 p. m. Saturday, the polls will be open from 7 a. m. until 10 p. m.

Seymour Gets $5,000

A verdict for plaintiff, Edward Seymour of Kingston, in the sum of $5,000 for personal injuries and damage to his car, was returned in Supreme Court Wednesday evening about 6:30 in the negligence action brought against Helen Y. Nellis and another of Ellenville. The case had been concluded and submitted to the jury late in the afternoon. The action arose out of an accident on May 7, 1950 and responsibility for the accident was not denied but the question of the extent of the injuries was at issue. Hubert Richter and Seymour Werbalowsky appeared for plaintiff and Andrew J. Cook, Sr., of Cook and Cook for defendants.

The ferry carried 10,447 vehicles last month and 8,857 in September, 1952. It carried 3,598 pedestrians last month and 2,853 a year ago.

Cinema-Minded Goats

Glacier, Mont. (AP)—Hundreds of Glacier National Park visitors strain their eyes without spotting many shy mountain goats. WOODSTOCK NEWS

By RICHARD E. THIBAUT, Jr.

Jacquez Devises Painting Process

Woodstock, Oct. 7 — Albert Jacquez, Woodstock, artist and painter of the Indian tribes of Western Canada, has published a booklet on his new process of combining paint mediums with plastic to form a more permanent method of painting. His new pamphlet, titled Embedding of Color Pigments in Casting Resin, Jacquez reported, has been distributed to a number of plastic firms, for their consideration.

The process, Jacquez explained, is still in the experimental stage, and he plans to continue to improve the medium. Artists who are interested in working in the medium may eventually be able to obtain laminated plastic sheets from the manufacturers and after the painting has been completed, may arrange to send it back to the factory for the top lamination which imbeds the pigments.

"The problem of coating a paint film in order to seal it from destructive agencies of all kinds is one that has challenged painters, restorers and technologists for many centuries," Jacquez said. "In spite of innumerable studies and experiments, no single solution has been found, and in view of the wide diversity of paint materials, it is doubtful if any substance could be expected to provide a safe covering for all pictures."

With this in mind, Jacquez started his experiments several years ago, and has developed a process which if practical will protect a picture and any material for the base, and may be used without limitation to its basic character or fabrication.

Jacquez has delved into the history of the discovery of materials that led to the formulation of cellulose nitrate, and the development of materials other than cellulose nitrate which today are referred to as phenolics.

One of the most promising resins, he reports, for imbedding is the styrene resin, made by polymerising styrene ethyline. The casting resin polyester styrene is a clear, transparent, fast curing thermosetting resin. He believes that, the introduction of plastic resin to the art of painting probably has been studied before, especially for the preservation of paintings through the application of plastic coatings.

Book Explains Process

One aspect Jacquez had to consider was the refractive index of the coating base. Coatings with a high refraction index sometimes cause a change in the value of colors, according to the artist, and also a general darkening of surfaces.

In his booklet Jacquez explains the process of painting with plastic, step by step, beginning with any base material for the support of the painting. When the entire process has been completed, the painting is actually embedded in plastic.

Before the final goal is achieved, Jacquez believes that many different techniques and processes have to be tested.

"The work so far," he reports confidently, "shows hope of finding the solution in permanent preservation of contemporary paintings by embedding."

Jacquez has worked for many months and to date has completed a total of 33 "plates" or completed paintings in the new process. Visits to his studio on the Lower Byrdcliffe Road over a period of months revealed pieces, large and small, in the various stages of embedding, some with sharp, clear intense color and others softly luminous in their plastic coating, evidence that a wide variety of effects are possible.

Voice of the People

Spartanburg, S. C. (AP)—For years it's been against the law to park on the streets here between midnight and 6 a. m. The idea was to help street sweepers, but no one paid any attention. Suddenly the police started enforcing the law. Parked cars were towed to a garage. Then, the howls went up. The mayor and councilmen stood it for six weeks. Then, they repealed the law.

Cheez It, the Cops

Green Bay, Wis. (AP)—Brown county police were doing a rushing business in suburban Allouez, using their new radar equipment to pick up speeders. Suddenly, every car approaching the radar location slowed down to a strictly legal 25 miles an hour. The police officers finally investigated. A few blocks away, a group of children were hailing each car with: "Radar ahead! Radar ahead!"

Eden Says Britain

blaming the United States for failure to hold the four-power talks suggested May 11 by Prime Minister Churchill. Eden said:

"To read some comments, you would think that a four-power meeting at the highest level was some magic formula which only the Americans prevent us from enjoying. That is of course the greatest nonsense."

'No Eagerness Shown'

Eden said the latest Soviet reply Sept. 29 to the Western note proposing a conference on Germany shows "no eagerness for a meeting on any level."

"It (the Soviet note) is an involved and negative document to which, I trust, we shall speedily return a clear and positive reply. Because, for our part, we really want this four power meeting on Germany."

Eden received an enthusiastic ovation from the 4,000 representatives attending the Conservative conference. He was cheered as he entered the hall and again as he rose to speak.

His face was tanned and he looked like a man who has had a successful recovery from a long illness. He was somewhat thinner and his hair was a bit greyer than it was six months ago.

Asks Exchange Program

Washington, Oct. 8 (AP)—President Eisenhower said today he'd like to see an international exchange program for members of associations of manufacturers and labor unions. Eisenhower suggested this, likening it to the interchange of students and professors between various countries, in a talk to the American Council on Education. He said these international exchange programs are "one of the principal ways" that differing peoples can reach understanding of one another and start on the "road leading to that happy time when we can live in peace as well as security."

Financial and Commercial

New York, Oct. 8 (AP)—The stock market made quiet progress today with some hesitancy in the advance apparent.

Gains and losses spread over a range of less than a point either way with the plus signs predominating.

Among the better performing divisions were railroads, oils, aircrafts, and many individual issues.

The motors were higher but under their best. Utilities held unchanged. Chemicals were irregular.

Studebaker opened on 1,500 shares up ⅝ and held to that gain. Hudson, the most active issue of the past two sessions, opened on 1,600 shares up ¼ and traded near that level. Continental Motors traded a block of 12,800 shares off ¼ at 7¾.

Higher stocks included Santa Fe, Texas Co., U. S. Steel, Kennecott Copper, duPont, and United Air Lines. Lower were Goodyear, American Smelting, Allied Chemical, and Union Carbide.

The American Stock Exchange was higher with trading light. Moving up were American Maracaibo, Canada Southern Oils, Coastal Caribbean Oils, Dobeckmum, Molybdenum, Segal Lock, and Standard Power and Light.

2,500 Catholics Arrested

Cologne, Germany, Oct. 8 (AP)—About 2,500 Roman Catholic priests and layman were thrown into Polish concentration camps during the two weeks following the arrest of Stefan Cardinal Wyszynski late last month, the West German Catholic news agency reported today. The cardinal was arrested on direct orders from Soviet Premier Georgi Malenkov to Russian-born Marshal Konstantin Rokossovsky, now commander-in-chief of the Polish armed forces, KNA said. KNA officials said they got the information from "absolutely reliable sources."

longshoremen reporting for work, the Katheryn's crew of 36 men walked off the ship in response to instructions from the AFL Seafarers International Union.

This cut off steam from winches and made loading impossible for any men Anastasia might have sent to work.

Drivers of 30 trucks lined up outside the pier were instructed by Local 807 of Dave Beck's AFL International Brotherhood of Teamsters not to make any deliveries to the vessel.

"Beck is lighting a spark that may react against him," said an ILA spokesman.

Museum Might Close

New York, Oct. 8 (AP)—The Metropolitan Museum of Art says it will close down if its guards go on strike Saturday. The 170 armed guards and other attendants threaten to walk out over their union demand for a $500 increase in annual wages. Museum Director Francis Henry Taylor said yesterday the Metropolitan's main building in Central Park and the cloisters in upper Manhattan would be forced to close in order to protect the famous collections. The union said present wages now range from $3,005 to $3,400 a year.

Reports Are Made On County Fair

Cash premiums of $7,595.50 will be paid early in November to exhibitors at the 1953 Ulster county fair.

The dates of the 1954 fair were set for August 18th and 19th.

These decisions were made at a meeting of the board of directors of the Ulster County Agricultural Society Wednesday night. The meeting was held at 74 John street, and President C. C. DuMond Jr. presided.

The financial report of the 1953 fair indicated a small margin of profit of receipts over expenses but the officials were quick to add that this is only made possible by the large amount of gratis help by a large number of individuals and agencies, including the city of Kingston.

"The margin will be about sufficient to cover the interest on the money to be borrowed to pay the premiums now and until the reimbursement is received from the state next spring," the spokesman continued.

Several suggestions were made to further improve the 1954 fair and the secretary Albert Kurdt was asked to investigate the cost of replacing some of the tents which are wearing out. Suggestions from the public are also invited. The concensus of opinion was unanimous that a free fair at Forsyth Park should be continued.

Eden Says Britain

blaming the United States for failure to hold the four-power talks suggested May 11 by Prime Minister Churchill. Eden said:

"To read some comments, you would think that a four-power meeting at the highest level was some magic formula which only the Americans prevent us from enjoying. That is of course the greatest nonsense."

'No Eagerness Shown'

Eden said the latest Soviet reply Sept. 29 to the Western note proposing a conference on Germany shows "no eagerness for a meeting on any level."

"It (the Soviet note) is an involved and negative document to which, I trust, we shall speedily return a clear and positive reply. Because, for our part, we really want this four power meeting on Germany."

Eden received an enthusiastic ovation from the 4,000 representatives attending the Conservative conference. He was cheered as he entered the hall and again as he rose to speak.

His face was tanned and he looked like a man who has had a successful recovery from a long illness. He was somewhat thinner and his hair was a bit greyer than it was six months ago.

Financial and Commercial

New York, Oct. 8 (AP)—The stock market made quiet progress today with some hesitancy in the advance apparent.

Gains and losses spread over a range of less than a point either way with the plus signs predominating.

Among the better performing divisions were railroads, oils, aircrafts, and many individual issues.

The motors were higher but under their best. Utilities held unchanged. Chemicals were irregular.

Studebaker opened on 1,500 shares up ⅜ and held to that gain. Hudson, the most active issue of the past two sessions, opened on 1,600 shares up ¼ and traded near that level. Continental Motors traded a block of 12,800 shares off ¼ at 7⅜.

Higher stocks included Santa Fe, Texas Co., U. S. Steel, Kennecott Copper, duPont, and United Air Lines. Lower were Goodyear, American Smelting, Allied Chemical, and Union Carbide.

The American Stock Exchange was higher with trading light. Moving up were American Maracaibo, Canada Southern Oils, Coastal Caribbean Oils, Dobeckmum, Molybdenum, Segal Lock, and Standard Power and Light.

Expects Tension

San Francisco, Oct. 8 (AP)—Gen. Mark Clark, allied signer of the armistice, foresees no more shooting in Korea but continued tension in the Far East.

2,500 Catholics Arrested

Cologne, Germany, Oct. 8 (AP)—About 2,500 Roman Catholic priests and layman were thrown into Polish concentration camps during the two weeks following the arrest of Stefan Cardinal Wyszynski late last month, the West German Catholic news agency reported today. The cardinal was arrested on direct orders from Soviet Premier Georgi Malenkov to Russian-born Marshal Konstantin Rokossovsky, now commander-in-chief of the Polish armed forces, KNA said. KNA officials said they got the information from "absolutely reliable sources."

longshoremen reporting for work, the Katheryn's crew of 36 men walked off the ship in response to instructions from the AFL Seafarers International Union.

This cut off steam from winches and made loading impossible for any men Anastasia might have sent to work.

Drivers of 30 trucks lined up outside the pier were instructed by Local 807 of Dave Beck's AFL International Brotherhood of Teamsters not to make any deliveries to the vessel.

"Beck is lighting a spark that may react against him," said an ILA spokesman.

Museum Might Close

New York, Oct. 8 (AP)—The Metropolitan Museum of Art says it will close down if its guards go on strike Saturday. The 170 armed guards and other attendants threaten to walk out over their union demand for a $500 increase in annual wages. Museum Director Francis Henry Taylor said yesterday the Metropolitan's main building in Central Park and the cloisters in upper Manhattan would be forced to close in order to protect the famous collections. The union said present wages now range from $3,005 to $3,400 a year.

Reports Are Made On County Fair

Cash premiums of $7,595.50 will be paid early in November to exhibitors at the 1953 Ulster county fair.

The dates of the 1954 fair were set for August 18th and 19th.

These decisions were made at a meeting of the board of directors of the Ulster County Agricultural Society Wednesday night. The meeting was held at 74 John street, and President C. C. DuMond Jr. presided.

The financial report of the 1953 fair indicated a small margin of profit of receipts over expenses, but the officials were quick to add that this is only made possible by the large amount of gratis help by a large number of individuals and agencies, including the city of Kingston.

"The margin will be about sufficient to cover the interest on the money to be borrowed to pay the premiums now and until the reimbursement is received from the state next spring," the spokesman continued.

Several suggestions were made to further improve the 1954 fair and the secretary Albert Kurdt was asked to investigate the cost of replacing some of the tents which are wearing out. Suggestions from the public are also invited. The concensus of opinion was unanimous that a free fair at Forsyth Park should be continued.

Method of Handling Large Sirloin Steak Is Important

BROILED SIRLOIN STEAK, with French fried potatoes and onion rings, is a treat fit for a king. Beef prices are now declining.

BY GAYNOR MADDOX
NEA Food and Markets Editor

Not only lean, grass-fed beef, but also a record amount of top-quality beef for this season is coming to market. So let's talk about broiled sirloin steak with our meat expert friends in Chicago. Here's what they advise:

In purchasing sirloin steak, make certain you are getting the very best quality. Allow ½ to ¾ pound per person. Have the steak cut 1 to 2 inches thick for broiling.

Store in waxed paper or aluminum foil in the refrigerator until ready to use, but not longer than 3 to 5 days. Wait until people are ready to eat before cooking the steak. Slash the fat edges to prevent curling and place on a preheated broiling pan.

Most experts recommend that an exact broiling schedule be followed if you are at all uncertain, and that the meat be placed 3 inches from the source of heat. If the steak is very thick and you wish it well done, as preferred in the Midwest, place further away from the heat so that it will have time to cook through without drying out the surface.

When broiled, remove the steak to a large hot platter. Add a sprinkling of salt and freshly ground pepper and a pat of butter.

French fried potatoes or onion rings, pan-browned onions or fried tomato slices make a nice garnish on the steak platter, while providing good flavor accompaniment.

Here is a schedule for broiling your large sirloin steak.

Broiling Schedule
Large Sirloin

Thickness	Rare	Med. Rare	Well Done
1 inch	10 min.	12 min.	14 min.
1½ inches	12 min.	14 min.	16 min.

Method of Handling Large Sirloin Steak Is Important

BROILED SIRLOIN STEAK, with French fried potatoes and onion rings, is a treat fit for a king. Beef prices are now declining.

BY GAYNOR MADDOX
NEA Food and Markets Editor

Not only lean, grass-fed beef, but also a record amount of top-quality beef for this season is coming to market. So let's talk about broiled sirloin steak with our meat expert friends in Chicago. Here's what they advise:

In purchasing sirloin steak, make certain you are getting the very best quality. Allow ½ to ¾ pound per person. Have the steak cut 1 to 2 inches thick for broiling.

Store in waxed paper or aluminum foil in the refrigerator until ready to use, but not longer than 3 to 5 days. Wait until people are ready to eat before cooking the steak. Slash the fat edges to prevent curling and place on a preheated broiling pan.

Most experts recommend that an exact broiling schedule be followed if you are at all uncertain, and that the meat be placed 3 inches from the source of heat. If the steak is very thick and you wish it well done, as preferred in the Midwest, place further away from the heat so that it will have time to cook through without drying out the surface.

When broiled, remove the steak to a large hot platter. Add a sprinkling of salt and freshly ground pepper and a pat of butter.

French fried potatoes or onion rings, pan-browned onions or fried tomato slices make a nice garnish on the steak platter, while providing good flavor accompaniment.

Here is a schedule for broiling your large sirloin steak.

Broiling Schedule
Large Sirloin

Thickness	Rare	Med. Rare	Well Done
1 inch	10 min.	12 min.	14 min.
1½ inches	12 min.	14 min.	16 min.

Tomorrow's Dinner

Fruit cup, broiled sirloin steak, French fried onion rings, baked potatoes, broiled tomato halves, lima beans, rolls, celery, sweet potato pie, coffee, milk.

Red Cross Spikes Tales Servicemen Pay for Articles

The present policy of not charging servicemen for Red Cross servies and supplies is to be continued, Mrs. Samuel J. Adams, chairman of the local Red Cross chapter, announced today.

"Despite the fact that no charges have been made for articles given to servicemen in Korea, there have been stories in circulation that we sold cigarettes, coffee, doughnuts, writing paper and even blood. Many of these stories have been outright fabrications, and some have been based on misunderstanding. Whatever the motive or the cause, and despite the lack of validity, they have been most harmful to the prestige of the Red Cross and have hampered fund raising and blood collecting efforts."

Mrs. Adams said that in order to dispel doubts created by these stories and to establish an atmosphere of postive knowledge that the Red Cross does not sell anything to servicemen or women, posters to this effect would be provided for use in field directors' offices, on armed forces bulletin boards and in chapter home service offices.

"Whenever it is possible to trace rumors of articles being sold by the Red Cross, Mrs. Adams continued, "every possible effort will be made to secure full information as to time, place, identity of persons involved, and the articles claimed to have been sold. National Red Cross Headquarters will thoroughly investigate any reported incidents in which such information can be provided."

Petroleum products made up about 65 per cent of the tonnage shipped to U.S. troops in Korea during the fighting there.

FALSE TEETH

That Loosen Need Not Embarrass

Many wearers of false teeth have suffered real embarrassment because their plate dropped, slipped or wobbled at just the wrong time. Do not live in fear of this happening to you. Just sprinkle a little FASTEETH, the alkaline (non-acid) powder, on your plates. Holds false teeth more firmly, so they feel more comfortable. Does not sour. Checks "plate odor" (denture breath). The Old Method

Fairmont, W. Va. (AP)—Half a million dollars worth of modern fire-fighting equipment was lined up for display, and photographers were taking pictures. When the call came that wooden paving blocks of a Fairmont bridge were on fire, spectators wondered which of the new trucks would answer the alarm. A 1941 emergency car rattled away—carrying two sloshing buckets of water—and put out the blaze.

Time to Think

Charlotte, N. C. (AP)—John Reid, 27, stepped on the gas and let 'er rip through Charlotte's business district. People ran for their lives. Three cars, one pedestrian and a telephone pole didn't quite make it and were hit by the plunging automobile. Finally captured, Reid said: "I don't know why I done it." A judge gave him three years to figure it out.

Time to Think

Charlotte, N. C. (AP)—John Reid, 27, stepped on the gas and let 'er rip through Charlotte's business district. People ran for their lives. Three cars, one pedestrian and a telephone pole didn't quite make it and were hit by the plunging automobile. Finally captured, Reid said: "I don't know why I done it." A judge gave him three years to figure it out.

Paltz, Oct. 8—No solution been found for the reloca- the village dump. On day evening, Sept. 30, at a eeting of the village and oards residents of the Plu- tarch area were told that the dump would not be located in that section. Sixty or more visitors were present. There were not enough chairs to seat the visitors.

Frank Elliot, town supervisor called on Mr. Wissell who reported that the land owner in Plutarch had refused to sell land on the terms drawn up. Mr. Elliot then told the group that they would not be interested in any further business of the boards that night.

Mayor Robert Reid spoke to the remaining visitors on the dump situation as it now stands. Then it was announced that the rest of the meeting would be closed and visitors were excused.

Although solution has not been found Mayor Reid said that the village board would continue working on the problem until it is solved.

At the meeting last Wednesday Elliot said that the dump was a village problem but in the solution of the problem the village could count on reasonable assistance from the town.

Seven Boy Scouts Advanced in Rank At Troop 6 Court

Seven Boy Scouts of Troop 6, Albany Avenue Baptist Church, were advanced in rank Tuesday evening at a Court of Honor held by the Troop in the church hall.

Advanced to Second Class were Frank Rittie, Joseph Gillen, James Connelly, Phillips Eighmey, Robert Stillings, and Robert Schoonmaker. The ceremony was in charge of Richard McCormick, assistant scoutmaster, who also presented the mothers of the advancing scouts with the mother's pin.

Scoutmaster Sherwood Lasher presided at a ceremony for Scout David W. Eighmey who was awarded his Life Scout emblem. W. W. Brady, chairman of the committee, presented Scout Eighmey's mother with her Life Scout mother's pin.

George Matthews, Institutional Representative of Troop 6, then presented to the Troop its participation award for the Saturday Camporee and its third place ribbon won in competition at the Camporee.

Plans for the trip to West Point on Saturday, November 7, were discussed at the troop meeting.

Following the regular meeting, refreshments were served to the troop in appreciation of its participation in the fall Camporee, by several mothers of the Scouts. This event was a surprise party for the Scouts and was planned by Mrs. James Connelly, Mrs. Frank Rittie, Mrs. Richard Stillings, Mrs. Henry P. Eighmey and Mrs. Richard Kalish.

One-Track Mind

Greenville, S. C. (AP)—Henry Hagood is a skinny guy. It probably saved his life. He was convicted of drunkenness and trespassing after a diesel locomotive rolled over him as he lay between the tracks. Hagood told the judge he didn't remember anything about it.

Old Oaken Bucket

Carthage, N. C. (AP)—Mrs. Sara Hussey, 73, charged her grandson-in-law, Ray Raby, 26, with trespassing when he installed an electric pump in the well serving both their homes. The case was dismissed when testimony showed that the well was on Raby's property. But Mrs. Hussey, who has used the well 42 years, told the judge: "I've drawed and toted water all my life, and I aim to keep right on doing it."

How About Speeding?

Superior, Wis. (AP)—When out-of-state visitors get a police ticket for meter violations in Superior, it makes them glow—but not from embarrassment. Here is what the ticket informs the visitor: "We are pleased to welcome you to our city. We hope you will come often. Don't worry about the policemen. They will treat you with courtesy and will be glad to assist you in every way to make your visit a pleasant one. You are not expected to observe the one-hour parking rules."

Bus Fire Drill Conducted by Ulster Hose

A bus fire drill was held yesterday afternoon by Ulster Hose No. 5 in connection with Fire Prevention Week. Seven school buses were "pulled over" to the side of the road on Albany avenue extension as they were taking their loads of children home from school. Fire Chief William Norton of Ulster Hose said he was "very favorably impressed by the rapid, safe and orderly manner in which the children left the buses during the drill" and expressed his appreciation for fine cooperation from both drivers and children. Firemen gave each child a coloring book on fire prevention at the conclusion of the drill. (Freeman Photo)

Alcoholic Air

New York (AP)—A visiting Englishman was haled into court for driving his sports car up the wrong side of Park avenue and being abusive to a motorcycle cop. "What did you have to drink?" asked Magistrate Louis A. Pagnucco. "Fifty-two glasses of milk," the accused replied. "Did you take any medicine?" "Yes, fresh air." Pagnucco fined the man $30, revoked his drivers' license, and commented: "There'll be no more American fresh air for you if you don't behave yourself."

Clay tiles in blue and white were used extensively in 17th century Mexico to decorate the living quarters and religious rooms of convents.

How About a Recount

Minisink, N. Y. (AP) — This is a rather sparsely populated town. Four polling inspectors presided at a recent primary election, and six votes were cast — those of the inspectors and two other persons who showed up. The counting, which didn't take long, showed three Rpublican and three Democratic votes.

The Untroubled Mind

Dallas (AP) — "We've got him worried," a detective said to his partner outside a room where their 17-year-old prisoner sat. "If we keep with him he's going to clear up a lot of stolen automobile cases," the partner agreed. The officers re-entered the room with added vigor to grill their prisoner. They found him sound asleep.

British Troops Land

Georgetown, British Guiana, Oct. 8 (AP)—British troops landed today and mounted guard at government headquarters here and sugar estates outside the capital of this South American colony. Small groups of persons watched the Royal Welsh Fusiliers disembark from the frigates Burghead Bay and Bigbury Bay, which sailed into Georgetown harbor before dawn. The situation remained calm in the face of what leftist Prime Minister Cheddi Jagan called a "show of force." He is head of the majority People's Progressive party, which has been accused by the British of Communist intrigues against the colonial government.

Took Hours to Count

Kansas City, Oct. 8 (AP)—It took 80 bank employes several hours to count out and package the 10 and 20 dollar bills that made up the $600,000 paid as ransom in the Bobby Greenlease kidnaping case. Arthur Eisenhower, brother of President Eisenhower and executive vice-president of the Commerce Trust Co. here, said FBI agents stood by and watched during the counting. "We tried to arrange the counting work in such a way that no employe would know the full total," Eisenhower said. After packaging three representatives of the Greenlease family came to the bank for the money. The money weighed 85 pounds.

Call Is Traced

A telephoned false alarm of fire last night has been traced to a coin box in a gas station at Foxhall and Albany avenues, Fire Chief Joseph L. Murphy said today. The call was for 138 Elmendorf street. A police patrol car also went to the area, and after no fire was found, the fire department's dispatcher checked on the call and found it was made from a coin box. The voice was believed to be that of a woman or girl.

Three Democrats

not as a former chairman of the Democratic organization in the Town of Saugerties, but as a private citizen I would like to express my views regarding the present criticism, as expressed in the press, of the actions of Lt. Gov. Arthur H. Wicks concerning his visitation of a former inmate of Sing Sing prison.

"Senator Wicks, as he is most generally and lovably known in this vicinity, needs no defender as to his conduct in public office. His lifelong, self-effacing and intelligent representation of the people in his Senatorial district speaks for itself. As a civic minded public servant he has given untiringly all of his life-time to the welfare not only of his district but to the people in New York State generally without regard for personal gain, honor or other emolument. It is repulsive to me to think that any stain should be attached to a man of his stature in connection with an incident that has been reported by the press and in a manner that would indirectly cast aspersions as to his integrity. Surely, his many good deeds in the past should lead a right thinking person immediately to say there is no stigma, in view of the Senator's explanation that his visits to the character in question evolved from an urgent desire to avert labor difficulties in his district, thus thwarting the progress of a tremendous statewide improvement and incidentally throwing lots of people out of work, should suffice. I do believe that any statesman or politician anywhere in this country, regardless of political affiliations, would do the same thing if it were for the best interests of his constituents. When he assumed office that is the only promise he made to his constituents, namely, to represent them fairly and to do everything in his power to preserve their best interests and the interests of the community in which he served.

I exhort all residents of the Senator's district and of the State generally to consider that any criticism made of him, particularly by political spellbinders in New York City seeking to capitalize on the situation, is of an opportunist nature and with designs to increase circulation or to disparage a man who has given the better part of his life in the interests of the people of the State of New York.

Very truly yours,
JOSEPH M. CAMPBELL,

Dewey Says, 'No'

New York, Oct. 8 (AP)—Gov. Thomas E. Dewey says he is not satisfied with acting Lt. Gov. Arthur H. Wicks' explanation of his visits to convicted extortionist Joseph S. Fay at Sing Sing Prison.

Dewey, however, has declined so far to say what form his dissatisfaction with his fellow Republican would take.

A number of Democrats have called for the resignation or removal of the 65-year-old Wicks, who assumed the title of acting lieutenant governor a week ago. He stepped up to a vacancy by virtue of his office as president pro tem and GOP majority leader of the State Senate.

Newsmen asked Dewey about Wicks yesterday in Brooklyn after the governor spoke at a hospital fund luncheon.

Dewey was questioned about Wicks' explanation that his prison visits to Fay, a powerful labor leader, in recent years were made to enlist his help in assuring construction project labor peace in Wicks' district around Kingston.

Asked if he was satisfied with the explanation, Dewey said "no."

Dewey was asked what he intended to do about the situation. His answer was "no comment—today."

Wicks Has No Comment

Wicks later declined comment on Dewey's expression of dissatisfaction. He repeated that he had no intention of resigning, and said that neither Dewey nor any other Republican leader had asked him to do so.

Wicks' name was on a list of politicians and labor leaders who visited Fay in prison, which was made public last Friday. Dewey quickly ordered Fay transferred from Sing Sing Prison—at Ossining between New York and Albany—to the remote Clinton State Prison at Dannemora in the Adirondack Mountains.

Balch Hits at Dewey

The Democratic viewpoint was continued last night by Democratic State Chairman Richard H. Balch in a speech before a party rally in Elmira.

Balch said "it is not enough to ask for the resignation of Sen. Wicks," and added that Wicks "was just one of many who called on Joey Fay."

The Democratic chairman assailed Dewey's handling of the prison visit disclosures and the current harness race track scandals.

Balch said that two decades ago Democratic Gov. Herbert H. Lehman, now a U. S. Senator, "was confronted with a similar situation and met it . . . by appointing a member of the opposite political party to conduct an investigation of the New York city rackets."

Balch told a newsman later: "I mean Thomas E. Dewey." Lehman appointed Dewey as a special prosecutor in New York city in 1935.

"Let's have no whipping boys, no cheap politics," Balch told the rally, attended by about 150 party leaders of nine southern tier counties.

"Let's see if the Governor has the statesmanship of Lehman."

Balch said Dewey is following a pattern of "see no evil, hear no evil, speak no evil."

Group Passes Resolution

An immediate investigation into "all the acts and conduct of" Acting Lt. Gov. Arthur H. Wicks during his entire career as a public office holder was called for in a resolution of the Ulster County Democratic Committee adopted Monday night and released today by Thomas J. Plunket, Democratic county chairman.

The resolution, transmitted to Gov. Thomas E. Dewey on Wednesday, requests the governor to appoint a special prosecutor, a bi-partisan committee, "or other investigating agency" for the purpose. It asks the investigation include but not be limited to the circumstances surrounding Wicks' visit with Joseph Fay, convicted extortioner, at Sing Sing Prison.

The text of the resolution:

"Whereas, there has been considerable publicity in the press recently with reference to public officials, particularly the present Acting Lieutenant Governor of the State of New York, visiting and having dealings and transactions with a convicted extortioner while he was serving his sentence at Sing Sing Prison, and

"Whereas, such actions have been of the deepest concern to all citizens and particularly those within the Senatorial District in which the present Acting Lieutenant Governor has served for many years, and

"Whereas, this matter has come of the attention of those present at the organization meeting of the Democratic County Committee of the County of Ulster, held at the Court House, Kingston, New York, on the 5th day of October, 1953,

"Now, therefore, be it

"Resolved, by said persons in meeting assmbled, that the Honorable Thomas E. Dewey, Governor of the State of New York, be and he hereby is, requested to at once appoint a special prosecutor, or a bi-partisan commission, or other investigating agency, to immediately and thoroughly examine into, investigate and report to the People of this State upon all of the acts and conduct of Arthur H. Wicks, during all of the time that he has held public office, including, but in no wise limited to, the circumstances surrounding his visits and dealings with the convicted extortioner Joseph Fay, at Sing Sing Prison, and be it further

"Resolved, that one copy of this resolution be forwarded to the Governor of the State of New York, and one copy released to each of the following: The Associated Press, The United Press and the Kingston Daily Freeman, respectively."

The resolution was accompanied by a letter signed by Plunket and William A. Kelly, secretary of the county Democratic committee, in which it was stated that the writers believe the request "is one that transcends all political consideration, and is a matter of gravest concern to every citizen of our state."

Police Receive Reports On Chestnuts, Paint

Police received two complaints yesterday of boys throwing horse chestnuts and another of the smearing of paint on trucks in the downtown area.

At 4:38 p. m., a woman said the windshield of her car was broken by several boys throwing the chestnuts as her car was parked in front of 24 Abeel street. At 4:45 a resident of East Chtster street complained that her son had been struck by chestnuts thrown by boys.

Officers Gurnsey Burger, Jr., and William Slover investigated and reported they warned youngsters in each area that they would be dealt with severely if the mischief was continued.

Earlier yesterday police headquarters was notified that paint had been thrown over trucks parked on East Pierpont and Chambers streets.

Charges Ordered Against 5 Guards

Albany, N. Y., Oct. 8 (AP)—The State Correction Department today ordered charges preferred against five suspended Attica prison guards for holding part-time jobs at the Batavia Downs Harness Racing track.

William E. Leonard, deputy commissioner, said Warden Wallace B. Martin of Attica prison, in western New York, had been instructed this morning to lodge against the five charges that they violated a rule requiring express approval of the warden on outside employment.

The five were identified as Robert Blake, Raymond Callan, Herman Lange, Francis Limner and Almon Corrigan. (Addresses unavailable).

Suspended Without Pay

Leonard announced the five had been suspended, without pay, pending disposition of the charges.

The deputy commissioner said the Attica warden would place the charges and that an informal hearing would be held. He said that later, if developments warranted, formal hearings would be conducted.

Leonard said Warden Martin learned last week that the five guards had been working at the Batavia track without his knowledge.

Nigel Bruce Dies

Santa Monica, Calif., Oct. 8 (AP)—Nigel Bruce, 58, veteran actor of stage and screen who was best known for his portrayal of Dr. Watson in the Sherlock Holmes movie series, died today in St. John's Hospital. He entered the hospital last Sunday night after a heart attack. Dr. Douglas Ford, his physician, said death was due to coronary thrombosis. His widow and two daughters survive.

prison, and the dates of their visits. The district attorney said he wanted to learn whether any of the visits were made at the time that labor payments allegedly were made at Yonkers Raceway.

A list of labor leaders, public officials and politicians who visited Fay in prison in recent years was made public by authorities last Friday. Fay is serving a 7½-to-15 year sentence for shaking contractors down for $368,000, and reportedly has exercised labor union power from his cell.

Faile said he saw no tieup at present between the visits to Fay and payments of $165,000-odd to Yonkers raceway labor "troubleshooters."

Hall Held by Police

This is a closeup study of Carl Austin Hall, 37, who is being held by St. Louis police in connection with the kidnaping and slaying of Bobby Greenlease of Kansas City.

Alarms Flash . . .

states in which alarms were flashed.

The FBI said 34-year-old Carl Austin Hall admitted planning and arranging the kidnaping, burying the boy's body and collecting the ransom. Hall and his sweetheart, Mrs. Bonnie Brown Heady, 41, a divorcee, were arrested in St. Louis.

Called Prime Mover

The original FBI announcement said Hall, an ex-convict who once squandered a $200,000 inheritance, also admitted "that he shot the boy." Later the government agency called him the prime mover in the kidnaping rather than the killer.

Hall denied in St. Louis he killed the boy and said Marsh shot the boy. He said he hadn't seen March since the day of the kidnaping—Sept. 28.

Mrs. Heady admitted taking the child from his classes in an exclusive private Catholic school on a ruse. She claimed to be the boy's aunt, and said Bobby was needed at the hospital because his mother was ill. Mrs. Heady told police she turned the child over to Hall but didn't realize she was taking part in a kidnaping.

A wide search is underway for Marsh, a man of many tattoos.

A spokesman for the Robert C. Greenlease family, in describing the days of anxiety over the boy's fate, said, "we relied on a criminal's word. We had to. But we lost."

Details Are Given

Robert Ledterman, a spokesman for the Greenlease family, gave details of the fruitless negotiations carried on with the kidnapers. Ledterman is a close friend and business associate of the 71-year-old father.

During the highly-secret negotiations Mrs. Greenlease twice went to the telephone to plead for assurances her boy was safe.

Ledterman said the kidnaper apparently had no fear of being traced through telephone calls. He called frequently.

"I talked to him every day, and sometimes 10 minutes at a stretch," Ledterman said.

Twice unsuccessful attempts were made to turn the ransom money over to the kidnapers. Finally the money, in accordance with instructions was thrown over a bridge in eastern Jackson county near Kansas City last Sunday night where it was picked up.

The kidnaper acknowledged in a telephone call that he had received the money.

Went to Kansas Point

After the money finally was exchanged successfully a telephone caller told the family to send a representative to Pittsburgh, Kan., and await instructions on the return of Bobby.

Ledterman said he and another business associate, Norbert O'Neill, stayed in Pittsburgh two days but finally gave up hope of a contact and returned to Kansas City.

It was a "weighty decision," Ledterman said of the negotiations, and "we lost."

Police recovered $293,992 of the $600,000 when they arrested Hall in St. Louis. Hall said he thought he got drunk and lost another suitcase filled with money.

Mrs. Heady was picked up in a St. Louis apartment the couple was sharing. The arrests came after a tip from an alert taxicab driver who told a police lieutenant about a man "loaded with money and carrying a pistol."

Implicates Woman

Hall, a chunky, balding man, broke down under questioning and implicated Mrs. Heady, a childless divorcee.

"My God, I didn't plan to harm the child!" Hall said. "I would never have done a thing like that."

He blamed Marsh, saying he turned the child over to him and later found the boy dead with a pistol beside the body in the basement of Mrs. Head's St. Joseph, Mo., home.

Police dug up the body in the yard of the home.

Mrs. Heady said she took Bobby from the French Institute of Notre Dame de Sion here and turned him over to Hall but didn't realize she was taking part in a kidnaping.

He was such a sweet child," she said. "He came so nice."

Hall admitted the boy was dead even before a ransom note was sent to the 71-year-old Greenlease and his wife.

Operations for cataract, the clouding of the eye lenses, are successful in nine out of ten cases.

SETTLING FAMILY ARGUMENT

A wife writes: Will you please settle an argument my husband and I have been having regarding the following point of eitquette? Whenever guests drop in for a visit in the afternoon or evening, I always ask if they would like a cold drink, or a cup of tea or coffee. My husband thinks that these refreshments should be proffered without asking, since most people would hesitate to say yes even if they did want something."

I agree with you; what you're doing is best. This gives them a choice of what they want, or a chance to say they prefer nothing.

Secret Honeymoon Plans

Dear Mrs. Post: My niece was married last week. Several days before the wedding I went to see her to give her a wedding present. During the conversation I asked where she was going on her honeymoon. She didn't answer but immediately turned the conversation to something else. I was quite hurt over this and later was criticized for asking this question. I had no idea this was such a deep secret. In many of the write-ups of the social weddings in this town, it is not unusual to see "the bride and groom will honeymoon in Bermuda." Will you please tell me if I showed bad taste in asking this question?

Answer: Your question was on that is not supposed to be asked but considering you did not press it further, certainly no grave error was committed.

Present For the Groom

Dear Mrs. Post: When a wedding present is given to the groom by his fellow employes, is it proper for him to thank them for the gift—especially when they do not know the bride—or must she write and thank them?

Answer: He thanks them himself. If it is something they are to use together, she might thank them again should she meet them; but double thanks are unnecessary.

Using Initials

Dear Mrs. Post: Is it considered bad taste to address a letter (or card) to a person using just his (or her) initials?

Answer: You generally copy the name they themselves use.

What type of music is played for the wedding reception? Mrs. Post is sorry she cannot answer personal mail, but her leaflet E-2 includes the answer to this question and other details on formal wedding procedure. To obtain a a copy, send 10 cents in coin to Dept. EP, in care of The Kingston Daily Freeman, P. O. Box 99, Station G, New York 19, N. Y.

Miss Carol M. Atkins Of Saugerties Is Wed To Anthony Ventura

Miss Carol Marie Atkins daughter of Mrs. Mary E. Heidcamp of 129 Clinton avenue and the late Bert Atkins, became the bride of Anthony Francis Ventura, son of Mr. and Mrs. Cosmo Ventura of 203 West Main street, Catskill, at St. Joseph's Church, Sunday, Oct. 4, at 2 p. m. The Rev. James V. Keating, assistant pastor of the church, officiated at the double ring ceremony.

Mrs. Frank W. Rafferty accompanied Rocco Autorino, soloist, in the selections Panis Angelicus and Ave Maria. The church was decorated with white chrysanthemums and fern.

The bride was given in marriage by her brother, Albert H. Atkins, of Rosendale. She wore a waltz length gown of white nylon tulle with alternating panels of Chantilly lace and tulle over white satin and a matching jacket of Chantilly lace, fashioned with a Peter Pan collar and long sleeves pointed at the wrist. Her fingertip veil was secured to a nylon tulle cap with seed pearls. She carried a cascade bouquet of fleur d'amour with pearls and a light orchid center.

The honor attendant, Mrs. Charles J. Osterhoudt, sister of the bride, 129 Clinton avenue, wore a waltz length gown of mauve pink iridescent taffeta with pleated bodice and full skirt. Her pleated cap of Paris-blue taffeta with ostrich feathers and rhinestones secured a tulle veil. She carried a crescent bouquet of blue pompons and rhinestones.

Jesse Warrington Jr. of William street, Catskill, was best man. The ushers were John Benton and John Stephano of Port Ewen.

Immediately following the ceremony a dinner reception was held for 72 guests at Deanie's in Woodstock. Dinner music was furnished by Rodney Du Bois at the piano.

For their wedding journey to Buffalo and Niagara Falls, the bride wore a brown and white checked suit with Eton jacket and accordion pleated skirt, brown velvet hat, lizard accessories and a purple orchid corsage.

The bride is a graduate of Kingston High School, and was employed at Hercules Powder Company, Port Ewen.

The bridegroom is a graduate of St. Patrick's Academy, Catskill. He is employed at Aero-Bilt Bodies, Inc. in Athens. Mr. Ventura is sergeant of the bugle section of the Port Ewen Drum Corps. While Mr. and Mrs. Ventura were receiving in the vestibule of the church, the drum corps formed in front of the church and played selections for Mr. and Mrs. Ventura in honor of the occasion.

Upon their return, Mr. and Mrs. Ventura will make their home at 22 North Vernon street, Athens.

Reversible Tomato

Raleigh, N. C. (AP)—Which is the top and which is the bottom of a tomato? Mrs. James Nicholson of Mebane couldn't tell. She asked the State Department of Agriculture. Department experts scratched their heads. They passed the buck to officials at North Carolina State College. No help there. One state college expert cautiously suggested referring to the "stem end" and the "blossom end" of the tomato. In that event, whichever end happened to be up at the moment would be the top.

How many "Hellos" in a day?

Would you believe it? Folks in New York State average more than 27 million phone calls a day! And of these, nearly 26 million are local calls.

That's really the story of your phone company in a nutshell. State-wide, it runs into some big figures. But actually the phone company is a home-town business. It's operated by local people. It does most of its business within that local area. It pays local taxes that help build schools, roads and other civic improvements. And its average sale is smaller than that of the corner grocery or drug store.

To fit the needs of each community, we tailor-make telephone central offices, switchboards — in fact, all telephone equipment. This planning, on the local level, pays off in faster, more dependable phone service for all. Today, for example, the average local call takes 20 seconds or less from the time the receiver is lifted until you hear the first ring. New York Telephone Company.

Shriners Will Go To Poughkeepsie

Many local Shriners are planning to attend the Poughkeepsie Ceremonial which will be held in the "Bridge City" on Saturday, October 24, by Cyprus Temple of Albany. Honored that day will be Noble Remmie L. Arnold, Imperial Potentate, A.A.O.N.M.S., who was elected to that high office at the recent convention in New York city.

The ceremonial will be held in the New York State Armory, Market and Church streets, Poughkeepsie, and at Masonic Temple in Poughkeepsie. The activities will get under way at 2:30 p. m. when candidates will report to the recorder at Masonic Temple. At 4 p. m. there will be a business session, election of candidates, dramatization of first section followed by the banquet at Masonic Temple. The parade from the armory to the Temple will be at 7:30 and at 8 p. m. the entrance of potentate, divan and patrol escort. Visitors will be introduced as well as past potentates and at 8:15 there will be the patrol drill. At 8:30 section two will be conducted. The session will conclude with a New York floor show.

Joke Over

JACOBY ON BRIDGE

Clue Will Lead You To Right Defense

By OSWALD JACOBY
Written for NEA Service

In some hands you have only a very small clue to guide you to the correct defense. Naturally you'd like more substantial evidence, but you don't always get what you like. In today's hand, for example, West had very little to go by, but it was better than a sheer guess.

When the hand was actually played, not long ago, in Cincinnati, Frank Weisbach held the West cards. The bidding indicated that neither declarer nor the dummy had a long side suit. A trump lead seemed safest, so he opened the deuce of diamonds.

Declarer took the first two tricks with dummy's ace and king of diamonds, East discarding the deuce of hearts. South next took two top spades and led a third spade, all hands following suit. Weisbach won the third round of spades with his queen and then had to lead away from one of his kings. Which suit should he lead—heart or club. And why?

It was clear that South had started with exactly five diamonds and three spades, hence five cards in hearts and clubs combined. He surely had both aces, both queens, and one extra card. Either a club or a heart lead would give South a free finesse, but West could afford to lead declarer's doubleton suit.

Opening lead—♦ 2

As you can see, a club lead gives declarer a free finesse in clubs and permits him to discard one heart on dummy's last spade. Nevertheless South is still stuck with one heart loser. If West leads a heart, however, South gets a free finesse, ruffs his third heart in dummy, and discards the losing club on dummy's last spade.

It was therefore up to Weisbach to decide which was South's doubleton suit and which was his tripleton suit. How could he tell?

East's discard of a low heart told the story. If East had held the queen of hearts he would have thrown a high heart. If East had held any six hearts, they would have been headed by J-10-9-8, and East would have thrown the jack of hearts to show some sort of strength headed by the jack. (Among experts any high discard denies possession of the next higher card. Hence discarding the jack denies the queen.)

Since East had thrown a low heart, he could not have either the queen or a six-card holding. In short, East was bound to have only five hearts.

Reading East for five hearts, Weisbach knew that South had three hearts and only two clubs. Hence he led a club and eventually got his king of hearts to set the contract.

How many "Hellos" in a day?

Would you believe it? Folks in New York State average more than 27 million phone calls a day! And of these, nearly 26 million are local calls.

That's really the story of your phone company in a nutshell. State-wide, it runs into some big figures. But actually the phone company is a home-town business. It's operated by local people. It does most of its business within that local area. It pays local taxes that help build schools, roads and other civic improvements. And its average sale is smaller than that of the corner grocery or drug store.

To fit the needs of each community, we tailor-make telephone central offices, switchboards — in fact, all telephone equipment. This planning, on the local level, pays off in faster, more dependable phone service for all. Today, for example, the average local call takes 20 seconds or less from the time the receiver is lifted until you hear the first ring. New York Telephone Company.

Shriners Will Go To Poughkeepsie

Many local Shriners are planning to attend the Poughkeepsie Ceremonial which will be held in the "Bridge City" on Saturday, October 24, by Cyprus Temple of Albany. Honored that day will be Noble Remmie L. Arnold, Imperial Potentate, A.A.O.N.M.S., who was elected to that high office at the recent convention in New York city.

The ceremonial will be held in the New York State Armory, Market and Church streets, Poughkeepsie, and at Masonic Temple in Poughkeepsie. The activities will get under way at 2:30 p. m. when candidates will report to the recorder at Masonic Temple. At 4 p. m. there will be a business session, election of candidates, dramatization of first section followed by the banquet at Masonic Temple. The parade from the armory to the Temple will be at 7:30 and at 8 p. m. the entrance of potentate, divan and patrol escort. Visitors will be introduced as well as past potentates and at 8:15 there will be the patrol drill. At 8:30 section two will be conducted. The session will conclude with a New York floor show.

Joke Over

St. Petersburg, Fla. (AP)—Jeffrey Hines' wife told him a joke that sent him to the hospital, where he was treated for hysteria. After he calmed down he left the hospital before anyone found out what the joke was.

JACOBY ON BRIDGE

Clue Will Lead You To Right Defense

By OSWALD JACOBY
Written for NEA Service

In some hands you have only a very small clue to guide you to the correct defense. Naturally you'd like more substantial evidence, but you don't always get what you like. In today's hand, for example, West had very little to go by, but it was better than a sheer guess.

When the hand was actually played, not long ago, in Cincinnati, Frank Weisbach held the West cards. The bidding indicated that neither declarer nor the dummy had a long side suit. A trump lead seemed safest, so he opened the deuce of diamonds.

Declarer took the first two tricks with dummy's ace and king of diamonds, East discarding the deuce of hearts. South next took two top spades and led a third spade, all hands following suit. Weisbach won the third round of spades with his queen and then had to lead away from one of his kings. Which suit should he lead—heart or club. And why?

It was clear that South had started with exactly five diamonds and three spades, hence five cards in hearts and clubs combined. He surely had both aces, both queens, and one extra card. Either a club or a heart lead would give South a free finesse, but West could afford to lead declarer's doubleton suit.

As you can see, a club lead gives declarer a free finesse in clubs and permits him to discard one heart on dummy's last spade. Nevertheless South is still stuck with one heart loser. If West leads a heart, however, South gets a free finesse, ruffs his third heart in dummy, and discards the losing club on dummy's last spade.

It was therefore up to Weisbach to decide which was South's doubleton suit and which was his tripleton suit. How could he tell?

East's discard of a low heart told the story. If East had held the queen of hearts he would have thrown a high heart. If East had held any six hearts, they would have been headed by J-10-9-8, and East would have thrown the jack of hearts to show some sort of strength headed by the jack. (Among experts any high discard denies possession of the next higher card. Hence discarding the jack denies the queen.)

Since East had thrown a low heart, he could not have either the queen or a six-card holding. In short, East was bound to have only five hearts.

Reading East for five hearts, Weisbach knew that South had three hearts and only two clubs. Hence he led a club and eventually got his king of hearts to set the contract.

Interloping Pigeon

Fort Pierce, Fla. (AP)—A pigeon made a recent county commission meeting one for the birds. The careless pigeon attempted to alight on the roof and fell down the chimney, emerging in the county commission's meeting room. The session was recessed while Chairman Harry Kicliter chased it down and took it outside to freedom. "I hope it was a dove of peace," commented the chairman.

Interloping Pigeon

Fort Pierce, Fla. (AP)—A pigeon made a recent county commission meeting one for the birds. The careless pigeon attempted to alight on the roof and fell down the chimney, emerging in the county commission's meeting room. The session was recessed while Chairman Harry Kicliter chased it down and took it outside to freedom. "I hope it was a dove of peace," commented the chairman.

Fruitful Carolina

Columbia, S. C. (AP) — Georgia calls itself the Peach State, but South Carolina long ago surpassed it in the production and export of the fruit. Now, Kansas had better look to its laurels as the Sunflower State. Some huge sunflowers are being grown in South Carolina. Mrs. Willie Mae Barber of Columbia has a sunflower 12 feet, 8 inches tall that's still growing.

Four Grand Union Managers, Wives Guests of Company

Managers John Albany, Fred Alte and Elting Clearwater, of the Grand Union market at 593 Broadway in Kingston, and Manager Robert Riley of the Red Hook store, and their wives were guests of the company for a day in New York on October 1. These managers were among the 44 whose outstanding sales performance during a summer sales campaign won the vacation trip to New York.

The second World Series game at Yankee Stadium was enjoyed by all as one of the highlights of a full day of activities. After the game the party returned to the Waldorf Astoria for a celebration banquet. That evening the group saw the Broadway hit show My Three Angels.

Smoked-Out Smoker

Hazelton, Pa. (AP)—There was a hot contest in the Bee Smoker competition at the 49th annual field day of the Pennsylvania Beekeepers' Association. The goal of the event was to see who could produce the greatest volume of smoke from a bee smoker—the traditional tool of the Apiculturist. No winner was announced —too much smoke.

When a bullet hits the screen the projector stops. The film is illuminated from behind to show where the bullet hit.

Deadline Monday For Cashin Dinner

Reservations close Monday for the Judge John M. Cashin dinner sponsored by the Association of Grand Jurors of Ulster County, and President Thomas J. Murphy urges all who have not procured tickets to do so immediately.

The dinner is Thursday evening, Oct. 15, at The Barn and will be the 19th annual banquet arranged by the grand jurors, who will be joined by members of the Ulster County Bar Association to honor Judge Cashin.

President Murphy reports that his association is well represented to date on the reservations list, and he presumes that when the lawyers of the area have obtained their tickets by the Monday deadline, the crowd will be one of the greatest ever gathered for an event at The Barn.

Sermon-in-Song Planned Sunday

Saugerties, Oct. 8—Hobart Mitchell will return to St. Paul's Lutheran Church, West Camp, Sunday, Oct. 11, to present his Sermon-in-Song. This special presentation will be part of the regular 11 a. m. worship service.

The title of the sermon will be Is That Enough? and will include the following vocal selections: The 91st Psalm by MacDermid, The 23rd Psalm by Malcott, Lord, God of Abraham from Elijah by Mendelssohn, It Is Enough from Elijah by Mendelssohn, I Know the Lord's Laid His Hand on Me, a spiritual, Listen to the Lamb, a spiritual, and The Lord's Prayer by Malcott.

This careful selection of the best in well-known sacred music shows the magnitude of this Sermon-In-Song presentation. This concert to be given by Mitchell is considered an outstanding event in the program plans of the West Camp Church.

Sermon-In-Song, a new and highly unusual program, is a synthesis of sacred music and the spoken word. The sermon opens with a solo, after which the spoken text and sacred music alternate in developing the message. Well-known oratorio arias, psalm settings, sacred songs, and spirituals comprise the music, and these are integrated with the sermon text so that the transition from speaking and singing is accomplished without any break in continuity.

Mrs. Evelyn Porter of Catskill, who plays for the Catskill Glee Club, and is the organist of the Reformed Church in Catskill, will serve as Mitchell's accompanist.

Mitchell, a concert baritone, also is the originator of the Poetry-in-Song concerts and programs which he sings in colleges.

Clear skies were in prospect for most of New York today and temperatures were expected to rise to the high 40s or 50s after dipping to the freezing level overnight. The Weather Bureau said yesterday's storm was confined to the northern part of the state.

Fruitful Carolina

Columbia, S. C. (AP) — Georgia calls itself the Peach State, but South Carolina long ago surpassed it in the production and export of the fruit. Sermon-in-Song Planned Sunday

Saugerties, Oct. 8—Hobart Mitchell will return to St. Paul's Lutheran Church, West Camp, Sunday, Oct. 11, to present his Sermon-in-Song. This special presentation will be part of the regular 11 a. m. worship service.

The title of the sermon will be Is That Enough? and will include the following vocal selections: The 91st Psalm by MacDermid, The 23rd Psalm by Malcott, Lord, God of Abraham from Elijah by Mendelssohn, It Is Enough from Elijah by Mendelssohn, I Know the Lord's Laid His Hand on Me, a spiritual, Listen to the Lamb, a spiritual, and The Lord's Prayer by Malcott.

This careful selection of the best in well-known sacred music shows the magnitude of this Sermon-In-Song presentation. This concert to be given by Mitchell is considered an outstanding event in the program plans of the West Camp Church.

Sermon-In-Song, a new and highly unusual program, is a synthesis of sacred music and the spoken word. The sermon opens with a solo, after which the spoken text and sacred music alternate in developing the message. Well-known oratorio arias, psalm settings, sacred songs, and spirituals comprise the music, and these are integrated with the sermon text so that the transition from speaking and singing is accomplished without any break in continuity.

Mrs. Evelyn Porter of Catskill, who plays for the Catskill Glee Club, and is the organist of the Reformed Church in Catskill, will serve as Mitchell's accompanist.

Mitchell, a concert baritone, also is the originator of the Poetry-in-Song concerts and programs which he sings in colleges.

Tuberculosis Control

Hartford, Conn. (AP)—Connecticut established its first tuberculosis sanatorium in 1910, but it was not until this year that the state tuberculosis commission was able to report no waiting list at any of the five sanatoria now maintained. New treatment, which shortens the period of patient care, and more available beds account for the favorable situation.

Thousands Ask 'Weeping Madonna' to Cure Their Ailments

It's only a simple terra-cotta statuette located on the Via Delgi Orta in Siracusa, Italy, but it's become the objective of pilgrimages made daily by thousands of devout worshipers seeking comfort or cures for their ills. The statuette, known as he "Weeping Madonna," is owned by Rosaria Pina, who claims that tears fall from the Madonna's face as pilgrims pray. Although church authorities at the Vatican remain silent on the matter, claims have been made by pilgrims, ascribing miraculous "cures" as well as the granting of wishes to adorations performed, and prayers offered, before the image.

So numerous are the crowds, many bearing gifts, that police are assigned to help keep order.

Crowds surge toward the Madonna shouting adoration, while a priest holds a paralyzed child, whose recovery is reported.

Intense emotion is felt as this girl, deaf and mute since birth, tries to shout words of adoration at the statuette.

A mother kisses her child as she holds a picture of the Madonna, hoping that the youngster will be cured.

White Sox GM Appears Headed For Lucrative Baltimore Job

Paul Richards Also May Switch With Lane

Chicago, Oct. 8 (AP)—Dynamic Frank Lane, whose numerous baseball deals have involved 170 players in five years as general manager of the Chicago White Sox, was never as cagey as he is today.

Now, he's dealing with something really close to home—himself. And he's keeping everybody guessing, especially the Comiskey clan.

The only thing fairly certain is that Lane, a tireless 57, will improve his salary, either getting more from the White Sox to stay or more from the new Baltimore Orioles to leave.

It's Lane's most stupendous deal of all—because he knows he can't lose.

Lane appears headed to Baltimore as general manager. The lure dangled by the well-heeled syndicate that picked up the St. Louis Browns' franchise, is described as a handsome salary, a block of stock and full authority.

Chuck Comiskey, 27-year-old vice president of the White Sox and destined to become the absolute ruler of the club founded by his grandfather, has confirmed that the possible move by Lane is beyond the rumor stage.

'Under Consideration'

He said that "Lane's situation—whether he's going to Baltimore or remaining in Chicago—is now under consideration."

This indicates the White Sox have given Baltimore consent to negotiate and the new American League club cannot be accused of violating the "tampering laws." Lane's Sox contract, reportedly calling for $25,000 to $30,000 annually plus a good bonus based on attendance, still has two years to go.

Lane conferred with Sox President Mrs. Grace Comiskey yesterday and later huddled at the home of the club's attorney Roy Egan.

"It was more just conversation than anything," said Egan of his talk with baseball's Trader Horn. "No decisions were reached. While we would not care to hold Lane to his contract if he finds the Oriole offers irresistible, we would want to make certain that the Baltimore people, in their enthusiasm, have not taken him high on the mountain to show him the golden city."

Lane could not be reached for comment.

May Take Richards

Meanwhile, there was a new speculative trend that involved Manager Paul Richards going with Lane if he shifts to Baltimore. It was Lane who insisted on getting Richards for the Sox and they form quite a mutual admiration society.

Richards has one year to go on his present contract and it was not known if he could be, or would be willing, to be pried loose. He was en route to Denver and Colorado Springs, today for some exhibition baseball games.

Marty Marion has two years to go on a contract as manager of the Browns that would have to be settled by Baltimore in any move to obtain a new manager.

Cavarretta Inks Pact

Otherwise most other baseball managers appeared to be set for 1954. All are signed except Chuck Dressen of the Brooklyn Dodgers, but the status of several are doubtful. In addition to Marion, in this category, is Jimmy Dykes of the Philadelphia Athletics, who has a year to go on a two-year pact.

Dressen is certain to be resigned by the Dodgers in December and is expected to get a fat raise.

Rumors that Phil Cavarretta was on the way out as pilot of the Chicago Cubs were spiked yesterday when he was signed for 1954.

Saugerties LL's To Watch Majors

Members of the Lions Club and the Farm Team League of Saugerties will be guests of Johnny Sauer and his Little League committee of that village at the exhibition baseball game scheduled Sunday afternoon at municipal stadium in Kingston.

The game, scheduled as a benefit for Fred Davi, veteran promoter, will feature the Major League Stars and the Hudson Valley All Stars.

Three members of the 1953 Champs—Vic Raschi, Gil McDougald and Gene Woodling, will appear with the Majors as well as former Yankees Bob Porterfield and Frank "Spec" Shea, who is managing the Major Stars.

Dressen, Noren Nicked for Fines In Series Play

New York, Oct. 8 (AP)—Nobody was tossed out of a World Series game and there were no full scale rhubarbs, even in Brooklyn, but two $100 fines have been levied just the same.

Baseball Commissioner Ford Frick wound up his World Series accounting yesterday by docking Manager Charlie Dressen of Boorklyn and reserve outfielder Irv Noren of the Yankees.

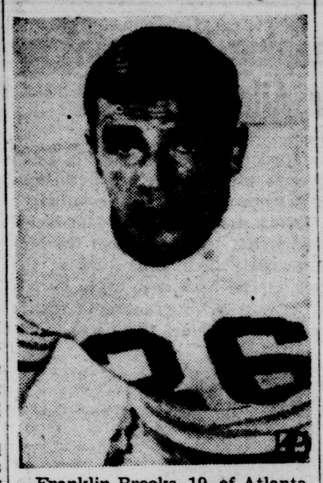
Frick fined Dressen for arguing with Umpire Art Gore about a foul ball call in the fourth game. He nicked Noren for waving a towel at the press box in the final game, protesting the official scorer's decision on a ball hit by Billy Martin. The scorers called it an error on Junior Gilliam. Martin, who later tied the all-time series hitting total, would have broken the record if the scorers had ruled in his favor.

Signs With Lakers

Minneapolis, Oct. 8 (AP)—Clyde Loveellette, the 6-10 former All-American center who smashed scoring records at Kansas, came to terms with Minneapolis' National Basketball Association champions Wednesday after vowing he would never play professionally. After leading Kansas to an NCAA title in 1952, Lovellette joined the amateur Phillips 66 Oilers turing down a three-year $50,000 offer by the Milwaukee Hawks. Laker Manager Max Winter revealed yesterday he had been negotiating with the big pivotman for two years. Money in "one chunk" was the final inducement, Lovellette indicated. Salary terms were not disclosed.

Holcombe Ward is the oldest living U. S. singles tennis champion. Ward won the championship in 1904 by defeating William J. Clothier.

Lineman of Week



Franklin Brooks, 19, of Atlanta, sophomore guard at Georgia Tech, was named as the lineman of the week in the first Associated Press poll of the 1953 collegiate football season. He was outstanding in his play against Southern Methodist when his team won, 6-4.

Hockey Season Opens On Two Fronts Tonight

(By The Associated Press)

The National Hockey League, which was still running when the baseball season opened last spring, begins its new year tonight only three days after the end of the World Series.

The Montreal Canadiens, Stanley Cup champions, are host to the Chicago Black Hawks while the New York Rangers, last place club last season, visit the league champion Detroit Red Wings.

The new season, again calling for 70 games for each club, brings two changes in coaches. King Clancy, with a long and colorful career as player, referee and minor league coach, takes over from Joe Primeau as pilot at Toronto. Manager Frank Boucher of New York, who served as coach following his playing days as a center ice star, returns to the bench, this time in the dual role of manager-coach.

Yale has not lost an opening football game since losing to Virginia in 1940.

Yankees Get $8,280 Each

New York, Oct. 8 (AP)—The New York Yankees, often accused of acting more like bankers than ball players, could offer some interesting financial figures today to back up their off-field behavior.

For their six-days work in winning their fifth straight World Series the Yankees split a melon of $290,363.48. Twenty-two players plus Manager Casel Stengel, four coaches, a trainer and the road secretary collected a record $8,280.68 each.

Sixteen other men received partial shares ranging from $6,210.50 for pitcher Bill Miller, shortstop Willie Miranda and clubhouse chief Peter Sheehy down to $400 each for two bat boys.

Nine of the Yankee players collected the big winners' share of the Series pool for the fifth straight year. Over this period they have each received $32,112.91. They are Yogi Berra, Hank Bauer, Eddie Lopat, John Mize, Vic Raschi, Allie Reynolds, Phil Rizzuto, Charlie Silvera and Gene Woodling.

Dodgers Receive $6,178

The losing Brooklyn Dodgers split their pot of $193,175.65 into 29 full shares and six fractional pieces. A Dodger full share was worth $6,178.42. In losing last year each Dodger collected $4,200.64.

The figures were announced yesterday by Commissioner Ford Frick. He also disclosed the totals for the other first division clubs who share in the player pool but he did not give an individual breakdown for each player.

Milwaukee in the National League and Cleveland in the American, the second place clubs, received $51,850.62 each. The Chicago White Sox got $34,567.08 for finishing third in the American League and the fourth place Red Sox received $17,283.54. The Philadelphia Phillies and St. Louis Cardinals, who tied for third in the National League, received $25,925.31 each.

Heads TD Scorers

New York, Oct. 8 (AP)—Joe Ulm, San Jose State's 190-pound sophomore halfback, is away to a flying start as the nation's leading scorer of touchdowns. And the way he is going the national record is in danger. Ulm has counted 10 of his team's 13 touchdowns according to statistics compiled by the National Collegiate Athletic Bureau. He crossed Idaho's goal line three times in San Jose's 34-6 opening triumph, scored all four TDs in the 28-25 win over Brigham Young and rang up three more in last Saturday's 27-21 conquest of Fresno State. By the way of comparison, All-America Billy Vessels of Oklahoma topped the field last season with 18 six pointers in 10 games. The record is 26 touchdowns by Jim Leach of VMI in 1920.

Syracuse University football players removed from a game are placed on benches painted orange until the beginning of the next segment of play.

Record Entry Expected For County Trapshoot

Annual Field Day Sunday at Glasco

The largest entry in the history of the event is expected to compete in the Federated Sportsmen's Club's annual field day and county championship trapshoot Sunday, Oct. 11, at the Glasco Gun Club.

Tony Benoit, chairman of the shoot, said this year's program would consist of five events, with a special junior championship for boys and girls under 16 years of age.

Glasco Gun Club will defend its county team championship. The team handicap event and a special yardage handicap affair complete the schedule.

Fred Thiel, the Milton sharpshooter, is individual defending champion, having broken 50 consecutive targets in the 1952 event at New Paltz.

Interest In Juniors

Federation executive secretary Carlton F. King said there is much interest in the Junior event which is being staged for the first time.

"It is the Federation's aim, as well as other gun clubs of the county, to educate the future generation in the safe handling of firearms," King said. "The Junior trapshoot is a culmination of this program."

"There is a lot to be gained by boys and girls who intend later in life to indulge in the sport of hunting our fields," King went on, "by attending this shoot and observing how guns are handled by experienced gunners. And we would like to impress upon parents, the importance of children acquiring as much knowledge about guns as possible before they take to the fields. That way, and that way only, can we cut down the toll of hunting casualties."

Shoemaker Nears Mark

Albany, Calif., Oct. 8 (AP)—Wee Willie Shoemaker is closing fast on a national riding record and his personal goal of 400 victories in a single year. He booted home four winners at Golden Gate Fields yesterday to raise his year's total to 373—just 17 short of the record 390 wins notched by Tony Despirito a year ago. With 21 days of racing left here, a 41-day meeting at Bay Meadows and four days at Santa Anita before New Year's, Shoemaker appears to be a cinch to reach 400 barring mishaps.

Herm Sickler High Scorer With 26

Rapp's Express continued on the victory path in the first game at the YMCA Court Wednesday night by defeating Village Rest of Port Ewen by 71 to 49.

Herm Sickler scored 11 points in the first quarter and wound up with a total of 26 points to spark the Rapps to victory., Phil McClusky again was runnerup for his team with 19 points. Jim Ferraro got 21 points for the Village Rest team to repeat for high scorer of his team.

In the second game a fighting Accord team fought a strong battle against Angel's Juniors but ended up on the shortend of a 58 to 54 game. The lead changed hands seven times in the last 13 minutes of play. Jack Dawkins, a substitute, entered the game in the last quarter and thrilled the crowd with three quick baskets to aid his team in victory. Accord lost Byron Lawerence, its high scoring guard, late in the third quarter via five personals which hurt them tremendously in the stretch. Bill Fitzgerald led the winning team with 19 points. He was followed by Don Schroder and Jack Dawkins with 12 and 11 points respectively. Ray Lawrence scored 21 points for the losing Accord team in the limited time he played.

Saturday night Harry's Angels and Haber's Grill, the two teams tied for first place in the "A" League meet in the 7:15 game and Lincoln Park and Victory Bakery close the week's activities at 8:15.

White Sox GM Appears Headed For Lucrative Baltimore Job

Paul Richards Also May Switch With Lane

Chicago, Oct. 8 (AP)—Dynamic Frank Lane, whose numerous baseball deals have involved 170 players in five years as general manager of the Chicago White Sox, was never as cagey as he is today.

Now, he's dealing with something really close to home—himself. And he's keeping everybody guessing, especially the Comiskey clan.

The only thing fairly certain is that Lane, a tireless 57, will improve his salary, either getting more from the White Sox to stay or more from the new Baltimore Orioles to leave.

It's Lane's most stupendous deal of all—because he knows he can't lose.

Lane appears headed to Baltimore as general manager. The lure dangled by the well-heeled syndicate that picked up the St. Louis Browns' franchise, is described as a handsome salary, a block of stock and full authority.

Chuck Comiskey, 27-year-old vice president of the White Sox and destined to become the absolute ruler of the club founded by his grandfather, has confirmed that the possible move by Lane is beyond the rumor stage.

'Under Consideration'

He said that "Lane's situation—whether he's going to Baltimore or remaining in Chicago—is now under consideration."

This indicates the White Sox have given Baltimore consent to negotiate and the new American League club cannot be accused of violating the "tampering laws." Lane's Sox contract, reportedly calling for $25,000 to $30,000 annually plus a good bonus based on attendance, still has two years to go.

Lane conferred with Sox President Mrs. Grace Comiskey yesterday and later huddled at the home of the club's attorney Roy Egan.

"It was more just conversation than anything," said Egan of his talk with baseball's Trader Horn. "No decisions were reached. While we would not care to hold Lane to his contract if he finds the Oriole offers irresistible, we would want to make certain that the Baltimore people, in their enthusiasm, have not taken him high on the mountain to show him the golden city."

Lane could not be reached for comment.

May Take Richards

Meanwhile, there was a new speculative trend that involved Manager Paul Richards going with Lane if he shifts to Baltimore. It was Lane who insisted on getting Richards for the Sox and they form quite a mutual admiration society.

Richards has one year to go on his present contract and it was not known if he could be, or would be willing, to be pried loose. He was en route to Denver and Colorado Springs, today for some exhibition baseball games.

Marty Marion has two years to go on a contract as manager of the Browns that would have to be settled by Baltimore in any move to obtain a new manager.

Cavarretta Inks Pact

Otherwise most other baseball managers appeared to be set for 1954. All are signed except Chuck Dressen of the Brooklyn Dodgers, but the status of several are doubtful. In addition to Marion, in this category, is Jimmy Dykes of the Philadelphia Athletics, who has a year to go on a two-year pact.

Dressen is certain to be resigned by the Dodgers in December and is expected to get a fat raise.

Rumors that Phil Cavarretta was on the way out as pilot of the Chicago Cubs were spiked yesterday when he was signed for 1954.

Saugerties LL's To Watch Majors

Members of the Lions Club and the Farm Team League of Saugerties will be guests of Johnny Sauer and his Little League committee of that village at the exhibition baseball game scheduled Sunday afternoon at municipal stadium in Kingston.

The game, scheduled as a benefit for Fred Davi, veteran promoter, will feature the Major League Stars and the Hudson Valley All Stars.

Three members of the 1953 Champs—Vic Raschi, Gil McDougald and Gene Woodling, will appear with the Majors as well as former Yankees Bob Porterfield and Frank "Spec" Shea, who is managing the Major Stars.

Dressen, Noren Nicked for Fines In Series Play

New York, Oct. 8 (AP)—Nobody was tossed out of a World Series game and there were no full scale rhubarbs, even in Brooklyn, but two $100 fines have been levied just the same.

Baseball Commissioner Ford Frick wound up his World Series accounting yesterday by docking Manager Charlie Dressen of Boorklyn and reserve outfielder Irv Noren of the Yankees.

Frick fined Dressen for arguing with Umpire Art Gore about a foul ball call in the fourth game. He nicked Noren for waving a towel at the press box in the final game, protesting the official scorer's decision on a ball hit by Billy Martin. The scorers called it an error on Junior Gilliam. Martin, who later tied the all-time series hitting total, would have broken the record if the scorers had ruled in his favor.

Signs With Lakers

Minneapolis, Oct. 8 (AP)—Clyde Loveellette, the 6-10 former All-American center who smashed scoring records at Kansas, came to terms with Minneapolis' National Basketball Association champions Wednesday after vowing he would never play professionally. After leading Kansas to an NCAA title in 1952, Lovellette joined the amateur Phillips 66 Oilers turing down a three-year $50,000 offer by the Milwaukee Hawks. Laker Manager Max Winter revealed yesterday he had been negotiating with the big pivotman for two years. Money in "one chunk" was the final inducement, Lovellette indicated. Salary terms were not disclosed.

Holcombe Ward is the oldest living U. S. singles tennis champion. Ward won the championship in 1904 by defeating William J. Clothier.

Lineman of Week

Franklin Brooks, 19, of Atlanta, sophomore guard at Georgia Tech, was named as the lineman of the week in the first Associated Press poll of the 1953 collegiate football season. He was outstanding in his play against Southern Methodist when his team won, 6-4.

Hockey Season Opens On Two Fronts Tonight

(By The Associated Press)

The National Hockey League, which was still running when the baseball season opened last spring, begins its new year tonight only three days after the end of the World Series.

The Montreal Canadiens, Stanley Cup champions, are host to the Chicago Black Hawks while the New York Rangers, last place club last season, visit the league champion Detroit Red Wings.

The new season, again calling for 70 games for each club, brings two changes in coaches. King Clancy, with a long and colorful career as player, referee and minor league coach, takes over from Joe Primeau as pilot at Toronto. Manager Frank Boucher of New York, who served as coach following his playing days as a center ice star, returns to the bench, this time in the dual role of manager-coach.

Yale has not lost an opening football game since losing to Virginia in 1940.

Yankees Get $8,280 Each

New York, Oct. 8 (AP)—The New York Yankees, often accused of acting more like bankers than ball players, could offer some interesting financial figures today to back up their off-field behavior.

For their six-days work in winning their fifth straight World Series the Yankees split a melon of $290,363.48. Twenty-two players plus Manager Casel Stengel, four coaches, a trainer and the road secretary collected a record $8,280.68 each.

Sixteen other men received partial shares ranging from $6,210.50 for pitcher Bill Miller, shortstop Willie Miranda and clubhouse chief Peter Sheehy down to $400 each for two bat boys.

Nine of the Yankee players collected the big winners' share of the Series pool for the fifth straight year. Over this period they have each received $32,112.91. They are Yogi Berra, Hank Bauer, Eddie Lopat, John Mize, Vic Raschi, Allie Reynolds, Phil Rizzuto, Charlie Silvera and Gene Woodling.

Dodgers Receive $6,178

The losing Brooklyn Dodgers split their pot of $193,175.65 into 29 full shares and six fractional pieces. A Dodger full share was worth $6,178.42. In losing last year each Dodger collected $4,200.64.

The figures were announced yesterday by Commissioner Ford Frick. He also disclosed the totals for the other first division clubs who share in the player pool but he did not give an individual breakdown for each player.

Milwaukee in the National League and Cleveland in the American, the second place clubs, received $51,850.62 each. The Chicago White Sox got $34,567.08 for finishing third in the American League and the fourth place Red Sox received $17,283.54. The Philadelphia Phillies and St. Louis Cardinals, who tied for third in the National League, received $25,925.31 each.

Heads TD Scorers

New York, Oct. 8 (AP)—Joe Ulm, San Jose State's 190-pound sophomore halfback, is away to a flying start as the nation's leading scorer of touchdowns. And the way he is going the national record is in danger. Ulm has counted 10 of his team's 13 touchdowns according to statistics compiled by the National Collegiate Athletic Bureau. He crossed Idaho's goal line three times in San Jose's 34-6 opening triumph, scored all four TDs in the 28-25 win over Brigham Young and rang up three more in last Saturday's 27-21 conquest of Fresno State. By the way of comparison, All-America Billy Vessels of Oklahoma topped the field last season with 18 six pointers in 10 games. The record is 26 touchdowns by Jim Leach of VMI in 1920.

Syracuse University football players removed from a game are placed on benches painted orange until the beginning of the next segment of play.

Record Entry Expected For County Trapshoot

Annual Field Day Sunday at Glasco

The largest entry in the history of the event is expected to compete in the Federated Sportsmen's Club's annual field day and county championship trapshoot Sunday, Oct. 11, at the Glasco Gun Club.

Tony Benoit, chairman of the shoot, said this year's program would consist of five events, with a special junior championship for boys and girls under 16 years of age.

Glasco Gun Club will defend its county team championship. The team handicap event and a special yardage handicap affair complete the schedule.

Fred Thiel, the Milton sharpshooter, is individual defending champion, having broken 50 consecutive targets in the 1952 event at New Paltz.

Interest In Juniors

Federation executive secretary Carlton F. King said there is much interest in the Junior event which is being staged for the first time.

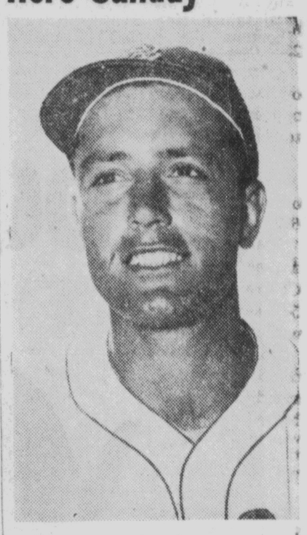
"It is the Federation's aim, as well as other gun clubs of the county, to educate the future generation in the safe handling of firearms," King said. "The Junior trapshoot is a culmination of this program."

"There is a lot to be gained by boys and girls who intend later in life to indulge in the sport of hunting our fields," King went on, "by attending this shoot and observing how guns are handled by experienced gunners. And we would like to impress upon parents, the importance of children acquiring as much knowledge about guns as possible before they take to the fields. That way, and that way only, can we cut down the toll of hunting casualties."

Shoemaker Nears Mark

Albany, Calif., Oct. 8 (AP)—Wee Willie Shoemaker is closing fast on a national riding record and his personal goal of 400 victories in a single year. He booted home four winners at Golden Gate Fields yesterday to raise his year's total to 373—just 17 short of the record 390 wins notched by Tony Despirito a year ago. With 21 days of racing left here, a 41-day meeting at Bay Meadows and four days at Santa Anita before New Year's, Shoemaker appears to be a cinch to reach 400 barring mishaps.

Jim Piersall, Red Sox Ace, Here Sunday



Major league critics rate Jim Piersall, the greatest defensive outfielder in baseball today. He is one of the many American League stars scheduled Sunday, Oct. 11, at 2:05 p. m. at municipal stadium.—Adv.

Crist Pounds 265 Solo, Robinson Raps 661 High

Art Crist, secretary of the YMCA Federation League, unleashed even strikes in a row in his middle game for a hefty 265 blast to take top honors in that department last night at the YM drives.

High triple glory went to George "Stooge" Robinson who spearheaded the Central Rec Major wheel with a hat trick total of 222-205-204 for 661.

Crist, bowling against the First Baptists on Alleys 1 and 2, poured out scores of 189, 265 and 171 to finish third high last night. He opened his big game with a triple, spared twice and then struck out to amass his sizzling 265 effort.

Sweeney Shoots 626

Runnerup to Robinson in the triple department was John Sweeney of the CYO Holy Name circuit who fashioned 195-189-242 for a nifty 626 three-timer.

Marie Kelekian was the "one-man" show in the Friendship League as she clicked for counts of 220 and 581 while Bert Burr paced the Central Hudson League with a 200 single and Dick Talleur with his 562 series. Florence Beichert topped the Pioneer Women's League with a 175 singleton and 515 series.

Ken Joseph, who is starting out the 1953-54 season in a maze of speed, continued to crack the pot-filled maples in fine fashion. He found up in the No. 2 position in the Central Rec Major last night with 656 on scores of 202-219-235.

Annual Turkey Shoot Sunday At Phoenicia

The Phoenicia Fish and Game Association will hold its 20th annual turkey shoot Sunday, Oct. 11, at the Simpson Memorial Ski Slope at Phoenicia. The shoot will start at 11 o'clock in the morning and last until dark. It will be held rain or shine. The meeting will feature shotgun and rifle competetion. This year a special class for 22 calibre rifles will be offered. Awards to be presented this year are exceptional in quality and appeal.

Turkeys to be given away to the winner of each contest will be the finest hen birds procurable, eviscerated, frozen, cellophane wrapped and weighing about nine pounds.

Darn Those Revenooers

Charleston, W. Va. (AP) — West Virginia's Liquor Commission, looking for the reason for a drop in whiskey sales found it on the hills and under the hills. The boys operating moonshine stills in the mountain glens had been overactive, while coal production from under the same mountains had slumped for lack of demand. "No coal, no paychecks, no whiskey," the commission summed up, adding that moonshiners find the situation to their liking because they sell cheaper at lower prices than legal stores.

Hoople Gives Youth Fling in Grid Predictions

By MAJOR AMOS B. HOOPLE (Chalk Champion)

Egad, readers! All my life I've been one to give youth an opportunity whenever keen ambition manifested itself.

Therefore this week, I am digressing from Dr. Zlobotny's impeccable system, and giving you the selections of my nephew Leander. Please understand this is all in the spirit of good clean fun.

The other day that mischievous jackanapes Leander approached me with this sort of proposition:

"I've got the best system yet for picking football games, Uncle Bulgy (Hak-kaff! I loathe that name)!

"It's the Gonzalez Gemetlick theory of Kenesmetics, based on thomboids, thyroids and blueboids!"

Heh-heh! Rather challenging, isn't it?

Well, I believe in giving every duffer his chance, so this week's predictions are based on Leander's strange-sounding system. Please note that this method is not without its upsets also.

So her goes:

That Ain't Lettuce

New York (AP)—Vice President Theodore Theban was making final plans for opening a branch office of his banking firm when there came an insistent rapping at the door. Theban opened the door to find a woman carrying a shopping bag topped by a head of lettuce. But the bag wasn't all lettuce. Insisting that she wanted to be the first to open an account, the woman dug under the lettuce and produced $11,500 in cash. She got her wish.

OUT OF DOORS with Field & Stream

By AL McCLANE (Fishing Editor)

The mackerel had been running thick off Plum Island for the past few months, so when Captain Van Del headed his big Navy boat up Ipswich Bay, I figured that I'd show the local talent a thing or two, because I was going to use my fresh water spinning outfit. Only spinning isn't a secret anymore.

There are four boats already anchored on the grounds when we arrived and I never saw so many spin-fishermen in my life. One boat had a full complement of 30 anglers on board, and by actual count, 24 of them were casting for mackerel with spinning tackle. When Van dropped anchor he reached under the hatch and brought out another spinnig rig.

The reason why this gear is so widely used among New England mackerel fishermen is because of the feeding habits of the fish. Mackerel work up into a chum slick where they feed fast and furiously for a few minutes, then they plunge out of sight. Chopped sand eels and herring are commonly used for chum in these ports, and any small wobbling spoon cast into the slick will bring an arm-jarring strike.

Spoon Does It

When the fish are at the surface our modern partyboat artist works his spoon among the crazy mackerel, and when they duck for the bottom he lets his spoon sink down to their level. In brief, the same flexibility of presentation that made spinning gear so popular among fresh water addicts has paid off in salt water.

We started to catch fish from the very first moment our anchor touched. Mackerel fight amazingly hard for their size. Most of these fish weighed less than two pounds but they could tear off 30 or 40 feet of line in a flash, and after boating 10 or 12 I had to stop and give my wrist a rest.

Van bridled the ship so we hung cross-wise in the current which made it easier for all on board to cast in the same chum slick. Every few minutes he would toss a handful of chopped eels on the water and the surface would churn with feeding mackerel. Once, a school of 'tinkers' or small mackerel came along and they struck at spoons that were simply dangled in the water.

When the tinkers left, a wave of "spikes" or baby mackerel moved into the chum and although not much bigger than our spoons, these little fish hit voraciously. The spikes were all released, but in two hours of casting, four anglers had filled half a large barrel with tinkers and big mackerel.

So that's the status of New England mackerel fishing — you can't teach the local boys a thing. (Distributed by NEA Service)

Itinerant Imbibers

Hollister, Calif. (AP)—Ever toss an empty beer can or bottle away as you drove along a scenic road? E. R. Hanna, San Benito county road commissioner, had county jail prisoners clean up such debris along a highway. In one short stretch they gathered 595 beer cans, 42 quart beer bottles, 27 wine bottles and six whiskey bottles.

The earth is slightly flattened at the poles, the north-south diameter being about one three hundredth less than that across the axis.

Juvenile Delinquency

Madison, Wis. (AP) — When Detective Frank Forster nabbed three boys taking tools from parked cars, he didn't take them to jail. He turned them over to their mothers. They were two 7-year-old boys and their 2-year-old accomplice.

Annual Turkey Shoot Sunday At Phoenicia

The Phoenicia Fish and Game Association will hold its 20th annual turkey shoot Sunday, Oct. 11, at the Simpson Memorial Ski Slope at Phoenicia. The shoot will start at 11 o'clock in the morning and last until dark. It will be held rain or shine. The meeting will feature shotgun and rifle competetion. This year a special class for 22 calibre rifles will be offered. Awards to be presented this year are exceptional in quality and appeal.

Turkeys to be given away to the winner of each contest will be the finest hen birds procurable, eviscerated, frozen, cellophane wrapped and weighing about nine pounds.

The kitchen in the ski hut will be open from noon on and will feature its usual excellent menu. Ernie Smith and his fine crew will be at the counter to take care of the autumn appetites. There will be adequate parking facilities at the slope.

Members and officers of the association invite all sportsmen to come and spend a rewarding day in one of the beauty spots of the Catskills at the loveliest time of the year.

Darn Those Revenooers

Charleston, W. Va. (AP) — West Virginia's Liquor Commission, looking for the reason for a drop in whiskey sales found it on the hills and under the hills. The boys operating moonshine stills in the mountain glens had been overactive, while coal production from under the same mountains had slumped for lack of demand. "No coal, no paychecks, no whiskey," the commission summed up, adding that moonshiners find the situation to their liking because they sell cheaper at lower prices than legal stores.

Hoople Gives Youth Fling in Grid Predictions

By MAJOR AMOS B. HOOPLE
(Chalk Champion)

Egad, readers! All my life I've been one to give youth an opportunity whenever keen ambition manifested itself.

Therefore this week, I am digressing from Dr. Zlobotny's impeccable system, and giving you the selections of my nephew Leander. Please understand this is all in the spirit of good clean fun.

The other day that mischievous jackanapes Leander approached me with this sort of proposition:

"I've got the best system yet for picking football games, Uncle Bulgy (Hak-kaff! I loathe that name)!

"It's the Gonzalez Gemetlick theory of Kenesmetics, based on thomboids, thyroids and blueboids!"

Heh-heh! Rather challenging, isn't it?

Well, I believe in giving every duffer his chance, so this week's predictions are based on Leander's strange-sounding system. Please note that this method is not without its upsets also.

So her goes:

That Ain't Lettuce

New York (AP)—Vice President Theodore Theban was making final plans for opening a branch office of his banking firm when there came an insistent rapping at the door. Theban opened the door to find a woman carrying a shopping bag topped by a head of lettuce. But the bag wasn't all lettuce. Insisting that she wanted to be the first to open an account, the woman dug under the lettuce and produced $11,500 in cash. She got her wish.

OUT OF DOORS with Field & Stream

By AL McCLANE
(Fishing Editor)

The mackerel had been running thick off Plum Island for the past few months, so when Captain Van Del headed his big Navy boat up Ipswich Bay, I figured that I'd show the local talent a thing or two, because I was going to use my fresh water spinning outfit. Only spinning isn't a secret anymore.

There are four boats already anchored on the grounds when we arrived and I never saw so many spin-fishermen in my life. One boat had a full complement of 30 anglers on board, and by actual count, 24 of them were casting for mackerel with spinning tackle. When Van dropped anchor he reached under the hatch and brought out another spinnig rig.

The reason why this gear is so widely used among New England mackerel fishermen is because of the feeding habits of the fish. Mackerel work up into a chum slick where they feed fast and furiously for a few minutes, then they plunge out of sight. Chopped sand eels and herring are commonly used for chum in these ports, and any small wobbling spoon cast into the slick will bring an arm-jarring strike.

Spoon Does It

When the fish are at the surface our modern partyboat artist works his spoon among the crazy mackerel, and when they duck for the bottom he lets his spoon sink down to their level. In brief, the same flexibility of presentation that made spinning gear so popular among fresh water addicts has paid off in salt water.

We started to catch fish from the very first moment our anchor touched. Mackerel fight amazingly hard for their size. Most of these fish weighed less than two pounds but they could tear off 30 or 40 feet of line in a flash, and after boating 10 or 12 I had to stop and give my wrist a rest.

Van bridled the ship so we hung cross-wise in the current which made it easier for all on board to cast in the same chum slick. Every few minutes he would toss a handful of chopped eels on the water and the surface would churn with feeding mackerel. Once, a school of 'tinkers' or small mackerel came along and they struck at spoons that were simply dangled in the water.

When the tinkers left, a wave of "spikes" or baby mackerel moved into the chum and although not much bigger than our spoons, these little fish hit voraciously. The spikes were all released, but in two hours of casting, four anglers had filled half a large barrel with tinkers and big mackerel.

So that's the status of New England mackerel fishing — you can't teach the local boys a thing.

Itinerant Imbibers

Hollister, Calif. (AP)—Ever toss an empty beer can or bottle away as you drove along a scenic road? E. R. Hanna, San Benito county road commissioner, had county jail prisoners clean up such debris along a highway. In one short stretch they gathered 595 beer cans, 42 quart beer bottles, 2 wine bottles and six whiskey bottles.

The earth is slightly flattened at the poles, the north-south diameter being about one three hundredth less than that across the axis.

Artist Thinks Woman Was Not Murdered

Monhegan Island, Maine, Oct. 8—Artist Rockwell Kent says he believes the death of New York socialite Mrs. S. Maynard Moran was accidental or a suicide, not murder.

Kent made his views known in a news conference.

Mrs. Moran, 49, a former model, disappeared last July while vacationing on this picturesque island. Her body was found 50 miles at sea three weeks later. She had been staying at a cottage owned by Kent, and was visiting Kent's sister. The artist was not on Monhegan at the time.

Pathologists attributed Mrs. Moran's death to a skull fracture produced by a "blunt force." Officials considered the theory that she was bludgeoned while walking near the steep island cliffs.

Lincoln County Attorney J. Blenn Perkins and Attorney General Alexander A. Lafleur joined Perkins today for a 15-mile boat trip to the island to pursue the investigation. Perkins said he has "a feeling someone knows more than they have told us."

A. J. Feyl Dies

Atlantic City, N. J., Oct. 8 (AP)—Albert J. Feyl, former publisher of the Atlantic City Press, died at his home in nearby Ventnor last night. He was 69.

Ask Atomic Facts

Washington, Oct. 8 (AP)—Several Democratic senators said today confusion is being spread by Eisenhower administration spokesmen on the danger of an atomic or hydrogen bomb attack by the Russians. "It is high time that the National Security Council or the President made a plain statement of the facts as they are known in this matter of life and death," said Sen. Kefauver (D-Tenn.).

Artist Thinks Woman Was Not Murdered

Monhegan Island, Maine, Oct. 8—Artist Rockwell Kent says he believes the death of New York socialite Mrs. S. Maynard Moran was accidental or a suicide, not murder.

Kent made his views known in a news conference.

Mrs. Moran, 49, a former model, disappeared last July while vacationing on this picturesque island. Her body was found 50 miles at sea three weeks later. She had been staying at a cottage owned by Kent, and was visiting Kent's sister. The artist was not on Monhegan at the time.

Pathologists attributed Mrs. Moran's death to a skull fracture produced by a "blunt force." Officials considered the theory that she was bludgeoned while walking near the steep island cliffs.

Lincoln County Attorney J. Blenn Perkins and Attorney General Alexander A. Lafleur joined Perkins today for a 15-mile boat trip to the island to pursue the investigation. Perkins said he has "a feeling someone knows more than they have told us."

A. J. Feyl Dies

Atlantic City, N. J., Oct. 8 (AP)—Albert J. Feyl, former publisher of the Atlantic City Press, died at his home in nearby Ventnor last night. He was 69.

The birth rate of Italy has dropped from 30.8 per thousand per year in 1922 to 17.6 per thousand per year.

Ask Atomic Facts

Washington, Oct. 8 (AP)—Several Democratic senators said today confusion is being spread by Eisenhower administration spokesmen on the danger of an atomic or hydrogen bomb attack by the Russians. "It is high time that the National Security Council or the President made a plain statement of the facts as they are known in this matter of life and death," said Sen. Kefauver (D-Tenn.).
